FOR THE YEAR
1897.

REPORT
OF THE
COMMISSIONER OF CROWN LANDS
OF THE
PROVINCE OF ONTARIO
FOR THE YEAR 1897.

To His Honour the Honourable SIR OLIVER MOWAT, G.C.M.G., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR.

As required by law, I submit for the information of your Honour and the Legislative Assembly, a report of the management of the Crown Lands of the Province for the year ending 31st December, 1897

CROWN LANDS.

The area of Crown Lands sold during the year was 60,147½ acres, aggregating in value $84,409.66. The collections on account of these and sales of former years amounted to $93,045.93. There was also leased as mining land under the leasing clauses of The Mines Act, 86,014 acres, on which and on lands previously leased, rent amounting to $168,356.54 was collected. See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

The anticipations expressed in last year's report as to activity in the mining industry of the Province during 1897 were fully realized. The number of companies incorporated under the laws of Ontario last year was 140, with an aggregate authorized capital of $101,531,000, as against 26 in 1896, with capital amounting to $15,600,000. The area of mining lands disposed of by the Crown in 1897 by sale and lease, and the sums received therefor exceeded the transactions for the five years, 1892-96, as follows:

1892-96	93,821 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres.	\$131,518.38
1897	115,809 "	144 299.06

The interest centered largely in gold mining, and the bulk of the lands disposed of were in the gold districts of Lake of the Woods, Seine River, Manitou and Wabigoon. Prospecting was vigorously prosecuted during the year and numerous discoveries of gold bearing quartz rewarded the efforts of explorers both within and beyond the boundaries of previously known fields. Many properties were under development, and several of them entered the list of producing mines during the year. Some immense deposits of low grade quartz in the Upper Seine region and elsewhere have been exploited during the year, and results appear to show that they will prove remunerative if worked on a large scale. The Sultana Mine, the oldest and most highly developed in the Lake of the Woods region, has increased its capacity from 10 to 30 stamps. The other producing mines in Western Ontario, namely, the Regina, Foley and Mikado, have been engaged in putting themselves in shape for steady and continuous working. The mill on the last named property began work in August. A large and fully equipped 20-stamp customs mill has been erected at Keewatin by the Ottawa Milling and Mining Company for the treatment of ores from properties bordering on Lake of the Woods. In Hastings County the Deloro mine has been producing gold from auriferous mispickel. The total quantity of bullion produced in the year was 11 412 oz. valued at $190,244, an increase of sixty per cent. in quantity and value over 1896. Discoveries of gold in the valley of the Michipicoton river were made in the summer of 1897, and on 9th September an Order in Council was passed setting apart the Michipicoton Mining Division with an area of about 5,000 square miles. Mineral lands situated in this division may be taken up and held as "mining claims," as provided in the regulations made under The Mines Act.

The copper-nickel mines of the Sudbury District smelted a greater quantity of ore in 1897 than in any previous year. The Canadian Copper Company was the principal producer.

CLERGY LANDS.

The area of these lands sold during the year was 676 acres, aggregating in value $670.60. The amount collected on account of these and former sales was $3,165.21 See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

COMMON SCHOOL LANDS.

The area of these lands sold during the year was $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres, aggregating in value \$5. The amount collected on account of these and former sales was \$10,751.55. See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL LANDS.

The area of these lands sold during the year was 329 acres, aggregating in value $385.15. The collections on account of these and former sales amounted to $2,414.12. See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

RAILWAY LANDS.

Under The Railway Aid Act of 1889, 52 Victoria, chapter 35, $96\frac{1}{2}$ acres were sold, aggregating in value \$193. The collections were \$176.58. See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

UNIVERSITY LANDS.

Of these lands there were sold 5,913 acres, aggregating in value $2,957.50, on which was collected $895.04. See Appendix No. 3, page 5.

COLLECTIONS AND REVENUE.

The total collections of this Department on account of all sources of revenue were $1,609,285.90. See Appendix No. 4, page 6.

DISBURSEMENTS.

The total disbursements of the Department were $329,417.14. This is considerably in excess of last year's expenditure, and arises from the large sum spent under the vote for mining development, and other special services. The following may be mentioned as abnormal expenditures:—Mining Roads, $32,986.05; Mining Schools, $9,552.70; Rat Portage Mining Agency $1,646.23; Michipicoton Mining Division, $2,898.72; payment out of Iron Mining Fund under The Mines Act 1897, $4,000. These items represent an expenditure of $51,083.70. In addition there was paid as compensation to Ontario Timber licensees for timber limits included within the Whitefish Indian Reserve as claimed by the Federal Government, $13,905. The refund expenditure was also considerably larger than was estimated owing to parties failing to complete their purchases within the time required by The Mines Act and withdrawing their money. The refunds exceeded those of last year by $15,685.62. On account of the great increase in the work of the Department incident to the mining excitement, particularly in the Surveys Branch, a considerable number of extra clerks had to be temporarily employed which is responsible for an increase in contingencies of $3,199.70.

WOODS AND FORESTS.

The total revenue from Woods and Forests for the year 1897 amounts to $1,327 140.08. Of this, $190,918.90 was on account of bonus and $54,166.62 on account of ground rent, leaving the net revenue from timber dues, etc., $1,082,054.56. See Appendix No. 4, page 26.

The revenue from timber dues is larger than was expected at the beginning of the year. The accounts for timber dues accrue due in the month of December subsequent to the winter in which the cutting takes place, and are paid more or less promptly according to the condition of the trade. The output of sawlogs, etc., for the winter of 1895-96 was, as stated in my last report, the largest in the history of the Province, representing the sum of over one million dollars for timber dues alone. These dues did not become payable until December, 1896, and a considerable portion of them would not be paid until the year 1897. Owing to the continued depression in the lumber trade and the uncertainty prevailing as to the reimposition of an import duty on sawn lumber passing into the United States, it was expected that payments would not be made so freely and punctually as usual; consequently the estimate of revenue from Woods and Forests was not increased in proportion to the large increase in accruals. When it became evident that an import duty would be imposed on lumber passing into the United States, heavy purchases were made for that market and some of our own lumbermen shipped their lumber over there and piled it up, this action being taken in advance of tariff legislation, the object in both cases being to escape the duty. (The sales improved the financial position and consequently larger payments were made than was looked for, the result of which has been the increased revenue collected from timber dues.)

The present state of our relations with the United States so far as sawn lumber is concerned is very one sided and unfair. Formerly our lumber paid $2 per thousand. Under what was known as the McKinley tariff, this was reduced to $1 per thousand on the Government of Canada agreeing to remove the export duty of $2 per thousand on Canadian sawlogs. Later, under what was known as the Wilson tariff the import duty on sawn lumber was removed and our lumber was admitted free into the United States, which was a great advantage to the trade as it enabled the Canadian lumberman to send a coarser grade of lumber into that market than he could when he had to pay $2 or even $1 per thousand. Owing, however, to the long continued depression in the United States we did not reap the immediate benefit which was hoped for from this removal of the duty, and just when the depression looked like passing away, the Republican party of the United States commenced to revise the tariff on protectionist lines. When the "Dingley Bill" was under discussion it soon became evident that lumber would be removed from the free list unless very strong efforts were put forth.

Those interested in Canadian limits, with very few exceptions, made a strong fight to keep lumber on the free list or to keep the duty down to the McKinley tariff rate, viz., $1 per thousand. It was believed that this would be done, but at the last minute the duty was made $2 per thousand. This was quite unexpected, but what was more unexpected still was the insertion of a clause in the tariff providing for the addition to the import duty on lumber of any amount which might be imposed as an export duty on logs sent to the United States. This meant that if the Government of Canada put on the old export duty of $2 per thousand on logs, then the duty on lumber would be $4 per thousand. This state of affairs caused an agitation to spring up for relief from such a one sided arrangement. The Government of Canada not having signified its readiness to put on an export duty, attention was turned to the Government of Ontario, and it was pressed to put a condition in all timber licenses requiring sawlogs cut under their authority on the Crown domain to be sawn into lumber in Canada. To deal with this question intelligently requires full information and grave consideration. The views of those interested have been heard and the Legislature will shortly be asked to approve regulations dealing with the whole situation. Meanwhile regulations have been passed excluding aliens from working in the taking out of logs and timber on licensed lands of the Crown and an officer has been appointed to enforce these regulations. In advance of the submission of the new regulations for the sanction of the Legislature with respect to the manufacture of timber, those lumbermen operating under authority of timber licenses issued some months ago have been warned against attempting to cut an abnormal quantity of logs for export, and the various rangers have been instructed to watch very closely the quantities being taken out, and it has been intimated to the lumbermen that should any abnormal cut be attempted the Department might feel called upon to take action in the premises.

For some time past there has been considerable excitement over the discovery of gold in the region lying north and east of Lake Wainapitae, and large numbers of prospectors and miners had flocked into the townships of Kelly, Davis, Rathbun and Scadding. These men had spent considerable money in developing the prospects which they had discovered and in order to render them valuable and make sale of them they had been pressing the Department for title. The Department had been averse to opening these townships for sale, lease or settlement because the pine timber had not been sold, and it was feared that in clearing, etc., fire would be used to such an extent that bush fires would certainly ensue and the pine timber would be destroyed. Early last spring the Department was very strongly pressed to allow titles to issue and so pronounced did the feeling become that threats were made through the Press and in correspondence and otherwise that if the timber stood in the way of the opening up of the townships it would be burned up. In view of these facts and of the presence of such an army of prospectors as had rushed in, the position became acute and the Department reluctantly concluded that it would be necessary to sell the timber in order to realize the bonus, put the timber under license, and then place on the shoulders of those who would buy it the responsibility of watching it and cutting from time to time whatever quantity might be damaged or was in danger. This course it was felt would relieve the intense feeling prevailing in the locality. Advantage was taken of the holding of a sale to sell other small exposed areas and a few berths in the Rainy River District, which, owing to the mining exploration there, were likewise in danger. The townships offered were not by any means first class pine townships, though parts of them were fairly timbered. The sale was held on the 17th of August last, and 280 miles were offered for sale, of which 159½ were sold for $265,162.50, or an average bonus of $1,665.07 per square mile. Considering the quantity of pine on the limits and its character, the showing was as good a one, so far as the price was concerned, as at any previous sale. A condition of the sale was that all the timber cut on the limits sold must be sawn into lumber in Canada. This somewhat narrowed the competition. Down to the close of the year there has been paid in on account of bonus of this sale, $122,141.67. Since these townships have been opened for sale and lease the miners and prospectors have been enabled to procure their titles and very good feeling seems to prevail between the miners and the timber licensees.

FIRE RANGING.

As is generally known, the fire ranging staff is composed of a number of expert and energetic woodsmen selected by the timber limit owners from among their lumbering staff, and in order to clothe them with power under the 14th section of the Fire Act, they are appointed Bush and Fire Rangers by the Commissioner of Crown Lands. The men are familiar with the territory they have to guard and being under the eye of the licensees they are careful and active in the discharge of their duties. They are placed on duty on the 1st May and taken off on the 30th September, unless some special circumstances require their retention for a longer period. Their duties consists of travelling about the territory under their charge warning settlers, hunters, prospectors, miners and others to be careful in the use of fire, to extinguish fires when found, or to call in assistance in doing so, should that be necessary, to bring to justice those who disregard or violate the provisions of the law, and generally to do everything to preserve the forests from destruction by fire. They are expected to keep very close watch over every part of the territory under their charge and to report from time to time everything of interest to their employers and to the Department as it occurs. They are paid such rates as they may be engaged at, not however, exceeding $2 per day, and they are allowed such expenses as they properly incur in the interest of their work. One half of the total cost of this service is borne by the Government and the other half by the limit holders. During the past summer sixty-nine timber limit owners made application to have rangers placed on their territory and 179 rangers were put on duty. In addition, as foreshadowed in my last report, rangers were placed on certain territory wholly the property of the Crown, in the immense body of pine lying north and east of Lake Wahnapiatae extending over to the Ottawa river and north of Lake Temiscamingue, and also on the head waters of the Mississaga river and in the Rainy River District. All these localities are now the haunts of the prospector, and require very close surveillance. Twelve rangers were thus employed and of course their entire cost was borne by the Government. Fortunately the summer was more than ordinarily wet and consequently although there was an immense number of men in the woods prospecting for gold, no serious fires occurred and no pine timber destroyed. The service has had an admirable effect in inculcating a spirit of care on the part of those requiring to use fire in the bush during the summer months, and where formerly nobody seemed to care or bother about a fire after they had cooked or warmed themselves with it, and left it to go out or spread as the case might be, now everybody recognizes that it is their duty to be careful of fire while it is in use and to extinguish it when they no longer require it. This is a valuable revolution which has been brought about by the fire ranging service.

During the year just closed a Royal Commission composed of experienced lumbermen, the Clerk of Forestry, the Superintendent of Forest Rangers for the Province, and the Chief Clerk of the Sales Branch of the Department, has been investigating the better preservation of the forest wealth of the Province, and it will, no doubt, give the question of fire prevention their close attention and make valuable suggestions upon the matter.

FISHERIES.

The fishery service has been transferred to the Department of the Attorney-General, where it is now administered. Particulars, therefore, do not appear in this report.

PUBLIC PARKS.

Public parks have also been attached to the Department of the Attorney-General and the expenditure in connection with them does not, therefore, appear in this report.

FREE GRANTS.

There are 161 townships open for location under The Free Grants and Homesteads Act. During the year 683 locations were made on 91,910 acres of land, and 49 locatees purchased 2,197 acres; 268 patents were issued to locatees. See Appendix No. 9, page 24.

CROWN LANDS.

The following surveys of townships have been carried out this year :—

In the District of Nipissing the townships of Casimir, Haddo, Cherriman, Jennings, Hendrie Burwash and Loudon have been sub-divided into lots of 320 acres each. In the District of Rainy River the townships of Sanford, Zealand and Aubrey, near Wabigoon on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, have been sub-divided into lots of 320 acres each. The joint survey of the western boundary of the Province, from the north-west angle of the Lake of the Woods, to the English river, has been completed. Mr. Elihu Stewart, O.L.S., acting for the Dominion Government, and B. J. Saunders, O.L.S., acting for the Ontario Government. In the District of Rainy River several meridian lines have been run north and south of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a base line from the boundary line between the Districts of Thunder Bay and Rainy River from the 120th mile westerly, a distance of ninety miles, connecting with the surveys in the neighborhood of Dryden. These meridian and base lines, for the most part, pass through valuable mining territory.

In addition, the town plot of Dryden has been surveyed, rendered necessary by the demand for land in that section, and several other minor surveys have been performed during the year. The returns of the above named surveys so far as have been received in the Department, have been examined and closed. The particulars of the surveys will be found in Appendices Nos. 14 to 28, inclusive, pages 32 to 58, inclusive.

MUNICIPAL SURVEYS.

The Department has during the year, on the petitions of the municipal councils of the townships of Rochester, Whitechurch and Osgoode, and the counties of Wellington and Halton, issued instructions for survey of the road allowance between lots numbers six and seven in the concession east of the river Ruscum, township of Rochester, the road allowance between lots numbers fifteen and sixteen, in the 8th concession of Whitechurch, the road allowance between the 10th and 11th concessions of Osgoode, from lot number twelve northerly to the north boundary of the township, and the boundary line between the townships of Eramosa and Nassagaweya. The particulars relating to these surveys will be found in Appendix No. 12, page 30.

MINING AND OTHER SURVEYS.

The Mines Act, 1897, requires that applicants to purchase or lease mining lands in unsurveyed territory shall file surveyor's plans, field notes and descriptions by metes and bounds of their locations in this Department before any sale or lease is carried out

Under Orders in Council of date 23rd January, 1892, 3rd December, 1892, and 22nd September, 1893, applicants to purchase islands or locations in the Districts of Thunder Bay or Rainy River for agricultural purposes, in unsurveyed territory, are required to file surveyor's plans, field notes and descriptions by metes and bounds, together with the necessary affidavits of their locations, which are required to be of the form and size, wherever practicable, prescribed by The Mines Act, 1897. Under these regulations a number of applicants in the Districts of Algoma, Thunder Bay and Rainy River have filed plans, etc., and an area of 27,493 acres has been sold and patented to them, for which $57,543 has been received; and an area of 70,068 acres has been leased at $1 per acre for the first year's rental.

COLONIZATION ROADS.

The work done during the year was as follows: Miles of new colonization road constructed, $106\frac{1}{2}$; miles of road repaired, $668\frac{1}{2}$; twenty-four bridges of various dimensions, aggregating a total length of 3,082 feet, constructed. Of mining roads $51\frac{3}{4}$ miles were opened and three miles improved, besides the erection of two large dams, details of which will be found in the report of the Superintendent of Colonization Roads. The work done was carefully inspected and reported to be of a substantial and satisfactory character.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner.

TOWNSHIP OF BURWASH.

DISTRICT OF NIPISSING.

CHATHAM, ONTARIO.

November 8th, 1897

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report of the survey of the township of Burwash, in the district of Nipissing.

In pursuance of the instructions received from the Director of Surveys, dated the 21st day of June, 1897, I left Chatham in the following August to carry out his directions. I proceeded to the south-east corner of the township above mentioned, where I found the tamarac post referred to by the Director, marked VI. M. on the west side planted by O. L. S. Bell in 1874. At this point I commenced my survey, retracing the south and east boundaries, giving the concessions along the latter a depth of eighty chains. Taking an observation from the north star, I found the east boundary bearing manifestly to the east. Upon referring to the plan of parts of the districts of Nipissing and Algoma, furnished to me by the Director, I found an apparent jog between the east boundaries of the townships of Burwash and Cleland of half a mile. According to the projected plan accompanying and forming part of my instructions, the south-east corners of the above mentioned townships were connected by a straight line, which included the east boundary of the township of Burwash. I therefore did not give lot 1 along the south boundary a width of forty chains, supposing that if I had done so and run the side lines north astronomically lot 1 in all the concessions would far exceed the desired areas, and lot 12 would be wanting in the sixth concession. In consideration of these probabilities, I ran the front of the fourth concession west, astronomically from the east boundary, giving lots 1 and 2 each a width of forty chains. I then ran a meridian between lots 2 and 3 to the north and south boundaries. I then gave the lots a width of forty chains along the south boundary, from where the line between lots 2 and 3 intersected it. I might incidentally mention that there were two lines run and blazed in establishing the east boundary of the township. This I never knew until I had surveyed about one-quarter of the township. I afterwards accidentally ascertained from an Ontario fire ranger, who assisted in the establishment of this boundary, that there were two lines and that the easterly one was correct. I then discovered the two lines and found that I had closed some of the concessions upon one line and others upon the other, naturally supposing them to be one and the same line. These two lines give me additional work, necessitating alterations and corrections. I ran the concessions and side lines respectively west and north astronomically. I found the south and west boundaries in some places entirely obliterated, owing to forest fires, where I ran straight lines between points where these boundaries could be clearly and satisfactorily ascertained. The west boundary bears to the east although not as much as the east boundary. The north and south boundaries run practically due east and west. I planted iron posts one and a quarter inches in diameter at the south-west and north-west corners of the township. The post at the former corner being marked "Burwash" on the north-east side, the one at the latter, "Burwash" on the south-east side, "Cleland" on the northeast side and "Dill" on the north-west side. The geological formation belongs to the Laurentian. The township has been visited upon a great many occasions with forest fires, extending over a period of about seventy-five years, the most recent destruction having been done two years ago. The township has a few high and rocky hills, but on the whole is comparatively level and is well adapted for agricultural purposes, there being large tracts of perfectly level land covered with hay and having a clay sub-soil. There is a large quantity of valuable white pine in the township, which I understood was sold about thirty years ago. I met with the usual timber common to this region, that above mentioned, together with red pine, balsam, spruce, cedar, tamarac, birch, poplar, maple, oak, black ash and elm. The last three in small quantities. I could not suggest any better method of taking out this timber than that which has already been adopted. The companies who have been lumbering in this township have dammed the small streams, thus forming lakes, down which they float the timber. They have also built a chute in the dam for the purpose of floating through large quantities of timber with as small a quantity of water as possible.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. F. O'HARA,

Ontario Land Surveyor.

Commissioner of Crown Lands,

TOWNSHIP OF CHERRIMAN.

DISTRICT OF NIPISSING.

LEAMINGTON,

11th December, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of the township of Cherriman, in the District of Nipissing, subdivided by me this year as directed by instructions from your department bearing date 21st June, 1897.

Obtaining my supplies and most of my men in North Bay, I proceeded from there with my party and supplies up Lake Nipissing by a small steamer chartered for the purpose direct into the south portion of lot number one in the fifth concession of the township. I found on reaching the township that the line run by O. L. S. McAree in 1882 as the boundary between timber berths twenty and twenty-eight and which line was to form my east boundary, had recently been retraced and opened out by O. L. S. Fitzgerald as the west boundary of the township of Haddo, and following west from the lake along this line, I found the iron post planted last year by Coad and Robertson to mark the northwest angle of the Township of Martland, which post was to form the starting point of my survey. This post had the word "Martland" marked on the southeast side of it, and I cut with a cold-chisel on the northeast side the word "Haddo," and on the northwest side the word "Cherriman," as directed, and having obtained an observation of Polaris at its greatest elongation, I proceeded to lay out the township from this post as a starting-post, running a line therefrom due west astronomically for the front of my first concession. Planting the lot posts at regular intervals of forty chains each, and from the same starting point I chained north along the east boundary, planting the posts at regular intervals of 80 chains for the starting points of the concession lines, and from the posts thus planted I ran each alternate lot line up to lot 11 due north astronomically and each concession line due west, astronomically. At the southwest angle of the township I planted a pine post with the iron post provided by your department along side of it, marking each on the northeast side with the word "Cherriman." This angle of the township I determined by producing my west boundary due south astronomically from the post in a stone cairn at the northwest angle of the township marked XXIX. on the north east side, XXVIII. on the southeast side. XXXVI. on the southwest side, and XXXVII. on the northwest side, until it intersected the line which I ran west for my south boundary. Good, substantial posts, properly marked, were planted at the front angles of all the lots and on the north boundary at the intersection with the lines run to it. O. L. S. McAree's old post on the east boundary were all found, and also those of O. L. S. Beatty planted on the north boundary, and their respective positions as I found them are noted in the field notes.

The township throughout is rough and rocky, a small tract of land in the 1st concession in the southeast and southwest portions of the township being the best land at present fit for agricultural purposes. There are, however, a large number of beaver meadows and swamps, which, if drained, would make fairly good grazing land.

Lake Nipissing forms the outlet for the waters of the greater portion of the township, the southwest part draining into what is known as Trout Lake, which traverses the southwest part of the township.

The township may be said to be denuded of timber of a merchantable character, fire having apparently run over it a number of times, and left nothing standing but some scattering pine stubs. It is now grown up with small poplar, birch, spruce, pitch pine, balsam and alder and willow bushes, a few scattering white pine are to be found along the north side of Trout Lake, and on lots 11, 12 and 13 groves of small pitch pine.

Some lumbering around the lakes in the west portion of the township has been carried on in recent years as indicated by the logs found lying in the creek along the west boundary and the old cuttings found.

Pickarel, pike and black bass abound in the lakes of this township.

Red deer and moose are plentiful and, from the indications seen, bear, beaver, and wolf are to be found.

No economic minerals were met with during the work of survey.

The variation of the magnetic needle was very regular throughout thevey, being 7° 15' west.

Hoping you may find the accompanying returns satisfactory.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(Sgd.) ALEXANDER BAIRD,
Ontario Land Surveyor.

To the Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto, Ont.

TOWNSHIP OF HENDRIE.

DISTRICT OF NIPISSING.

WOODSTOCK, ONTARIO,

26th October, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of the township of Hendrie under instructions from your Department dated June 21st, 1897.

I proceeded to the work on the 17th of August via Sturgeon river and Lake Nipissing with a party of fourteen men. A tug was employed for the first day's journey, when the water becoming shallow, canoes were made use of.

The eastern boundary of the township was reached at noon on the 18th. The post at the southeast angle of the township described in the instructions was found without difficulty. The survey was carried on without interruption till its completion at the north west angle of the township on Friday, 17th September. The party returned to Sturgeon Falls via Lake Nepawassing, Veuve river, Lake Nipissing and Sturgeon river, the trip lasting two days. The township of Hendrie is exceedingly well watered by numerous lakes and small creeks, with the exception of the north easterly portion the surface is rocky and undulating, occasional small areas of moderately fertile land are met with, on which the soil is sandy loam and there are a great many rich beaver meadows which could be easily drained as the outlets are rocky creeks with rapid fall. The northeasterly portion of the township is flat, the soil a light sandy loam interspersed with rocky knolls. There would probably be 20 per cent. of the land of the township suitable for cultivation or grazing.

The township has been lumbered over except the southwest corner on which is standing valuable white pine.

The northeast portion was overrun by fire some years ago and is now devoid of timber. Quantities of Norway pine 8 to 10 inches in diameter are still standing on the other portions.

No economic minerals were met with, the rocks being of the Laurentian formation.

Red deer, moose and bear are plentiful, the lakes are well stocked with fish—black bass and pike.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

WM. MAHLON DAVIS,

Ontario Land Surveyor.

The Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

TOWNSHIP OF JENNINGS.

DISTRICT OF NIPISSING.

HAMILTON,

November 23rd, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to report the completion of the survey of the township of Jennings in the District of Nipissing, under your instructions, dated 21st June, 1897.

On July 14th, I left Warren, a small village on the Canadian Pacific Railway, about forty-three miles west of North Bay, with my party and there being a fair bush road made by the settlers who have taken up land in the northern portions of the townships of Casimir and Jennings, I was enabled to drive waggons containing my outfit and supplies right into northeast angle of the township where I arrived the same evening.

I commenced work as instructed, at the southeast angle of the township and retraced and rechaind my south boundary, planting posts at regular distances of forty chains apart until I arrived at the southeast angle of lot number thirteen, continuing my chainage west to the southwest angle of the township I found lot thirteen to be forty-one chains and twenty-four links.

The northern portion of the township is in general rolling.

The soil consists of clay and sandy loam.

Lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the 3rd, 4th and 5th concessions and all of concession six are well adapted for agricultural purposes, and are at the present time being settled by French Canadians from the Ottawa and Quebec districts, the balance of the 3rd, 4th and 5th concessions is broken by rocky ridges with small stretches of good land between them.

The greater portion of concessions 1 and 2 is very rough and rocky, particularly in the vicinity of the lakes.

The whole township has been burnt over several times, and is now covered with second growth poplar, birch, spruce, tamarac and pitch pine, on the high lands, and thick willow, and alder on the low. There is very little green pine now standing, and that is found principally along the ridges surrounding the large lake which is situated in the southwest portion of the township.

There are two mill sites in the township, the first on lot 9 concession 1 near the south boundary, the second on a creek emptying into Waubesa Lake on lot 8 concession 1 at a point about ten chains northerly from the lake, each site having a natural fall of about ten feet.

On the first site mentioned there is at present a dam and slide which has been built and used by the lumbermen operating on the lakes west of it.

The lines are all well cut out and blazed and substantial posts planted.

No economic minerals were found during the progress of the survey.

There are a great number of lakes in the township all of which abound with fish, principally pike, pickerel and bass.

Considerable large game was seen during the survey, several moose and red deer, also four bears, wolves were heard frequently during the nights, partridges were also plentiful.

On account of the dryness of the season the waters in the creeks and lakes were very low, the former in most cases completely dry. The water in the large lake in the southwest angle of the township fell nearly three feet during the progress of survey. Accompanying this report is a general plan, timber plan, statement of settlers claims, field notes and account duly sworn to.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

THOMAS R. HEWSON,

Ontario Land Surveyor.

The Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

TOWNSHIP OF LOUDON.

DISTRICT OF NIPISSING.

PARRY SOUND,

November 23rd, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to report that I have surveyed the township of Loudon in the Nipissing District under your instructions, dated June, A.D. 1897.

I commenced the survey at the southeast angle of the township, where I found an iron bar, and which I marked "Loudon" facing to the northwest and concession 1 to the north and chained north on the old Meridian line or East Boundary of the township to the south shore of West Bay and planted posts at the depth of eighty chains at the front of the second and third concession, the weather was cloudy at the time, and I could not observe Polaris, and I opened up the old line for about half a mile and turned off a right angle at the front of the third concession and ran line west to lot 4 where I observed Polaris at eastern elongation on the night of August 2nd, Azimuth $1^{\circ} 47' 30''$ and found my line running four minutes too much to the south, I corrected the bearing and made said line a base for my work.

I surveyed all that part of the township south of West Bay before doing any work on the north side, said West Bay continues all the way across the township dividing it into nearly two equal parts.

After finishing the survey south of the Bay, I moved over to the north side, and carried the survey from the west boundary eastward, having previously run the east boundary across the Bay and triangulated the distance.

I chained the west boundary from the southwest angle of the township to West Bay and found my chaining agreeing with the field notes furnished me from your office, and was informed by Mr. Fitzgerald that he had chained the other two miles of the Boundary, and that his chaining exactly agreed with original survey, I therefore concluded that it was not necessary to rechain, and have not given any field notes for the West Boundary. I was only able to chain the north boundary from the northwest angle to the line between lots 4 and 5 on ac . 0 deep water in a marsh through which a large creek empties into middle west Bay. I was informed by the Indians that the water in Lake Nipissing was considerably higher than in other years at the same season, making the marshes which in several places border bays of the lake impassable, notably the one just mentioned, and a large one at the west end of West Bay in concession 4 where what I have shewn as islands one and two are usually in the summer season attached to the main land by marsh that can be travelled over, although always in the spring the marsh is navigable for canoes.

There is very little difference in the character of the surface soil or timber throughout the whole township excepting on the point between west and middle West Bays where there is some scattered white pine, but not of a very good quality, the other part of the township is timbered with small poplar and pitch pine, poplar prevailing on the south side of the bay and pitch pine on the north side.

The soil is generally light, but in a few places there is good oam as indicated in the field notes, but there is not sufficient good land in any one place to form a large settlement.

There is no settler living in the township, and the only improvement is a small chopping on lot 9 concession 6.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

DAVID BEATTY.

The Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

EAST PART OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ARCHIBALD.

DISTRICT OF ALGOMA.

TILBURY, January 26th, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report of the survey of the east part of the township of Archibald, in the District of Algoma, under instructions from your department, bearing date the 18th June, 1896.

I commenced the survey at the south-east angle of the township at a cedar post, where I also planted an iron post alongside of it, of gaspipe three feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, forged at the top and pointed at the bottom, and marked with a cold chisel the words, "Archibald" facing the northeast and Tupper facing the southwest.

I then retraced the north boundary of the township of Tupper, which is the front of my first concession, planting the lot posts thereon as directed in the instructions, until I reached the line run or retraced by O. L. S. Joseph Cozens in 1893 for the east boundary of the Indian Reserve, where I planted a similar iron post and also the old post alongside of it, which I found lying down and nearly decayed. The iron post is marked with the words "Archibald" facing the north-east and Tupper facing the south-east and I. R., for Indian Reserve, facing the west.

I then surveyed the other concession lines and side lines as directed in instructions, or as nearly so as possible.

I also planted a similar iron post at the northeast angle of the township alongside of the old cedar post, which was the only old post that was found standing throughout the survey, and the marks were quite distinct on it. The iron post was marked "Archibald" facing the southwest.

I also planted a similar iron post at the northwest corner of lot 7, concession 6, or east limit of the Indian Reserve marked "Archibald" facing the southeast and I. R. for Indian Reserve facing the southwest.

The west boundary was rather difficult to retrace, owing to the trees being blazed rather lightly and too far apart in places and the line not being run exactly straight.

This portion of the township is rather rough and mountainous, but the soil is principally sandy loam of a very good quality, except in the marshes, where it is a very light sand. There will be about fifty per cent. of the township that would make fairly good agricultural and pasture land.

There are no rocks in the township worth mentioning except an occasional bluff in the mountains and a few scattered boulders, none of which are of any economic value.

There is not sufficient pine in the township to make it of any commercial value, as it is so scattered that it would cost nearly as much to get it out as the timber would be worth.

The principal timber is hard maple, white and black birch of medium size, but rather short and scrubby. There are some balsam, cedar and spruce, which generally grows in the swamps or low lands.

There is good water nearly all through the township in small streams or spring creeks, and a branch of the Chippawa River enters the township in lot 1 in the sixth concession and crosses into the fifth concession about the centre of lot 1 and thence runs westerly all the way across the fifth concession, crossing the west boundary nearly in the centre of the concession. It will average about fifty feet in width and is very shallow, in many places at present, there being not over three or four inches of water confined into a narrow channel. The water is very clear and the bottom is stony or gravelly. There are no lakes of any size in the township. There was very little game seen in the township, except some caribou, partridge and porcupine. There are no settlers in this part of the township. The variation of the magnetic needle was four degrees west and very regular throughout the survey.

Accompanying this report are plan, field notes and account.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. M. TIERNAN,
O. L. S.

To the Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

TOWNSHIP OF CURTIS.

DISTRICT OF ALGOMA.

ESSEX, January 29th, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of the Township of Curtis, in the District of Algoma, performed under instructions from your Department, dated 18th June, 1896:

From the village of Garden River, where I obtained my supplies and most of my men, I proceeded up the Garden River with my party and supplies in small flat bottomed boats to where the river is crossed by the north boundary of the Township of Gillmor. The passage up the river on account of the shallow water and the great stretches of rapids in the same, being very tedious. We were forced to wade the river about three-quarters of the distance from its mouth to the township and tow our boats with the provisions and lift them over the innumerable rapids, which entailed a great amount of labor and loss of time in reaching the township. This was the easiest and only expeditious way of getting in my supplies. Having found the north boundary of the Township of Gillmor, where it crosses Garden River, I retraced it east to the northeast angle of that township, where I found the cedar post standing which was to form the starting point of my survey and the southeast angle of the Township of Curtis, alongside of which post I planted a new cedar post marked "Gillmor" on the south side "Curtis, Lot 1" on the west side and concession 1 on the north side, and alongside of these posts I drove firmly in the ground the iron post with the names Curtis and Gillmor cut with a cold chisel, the names facing the respective townships, and from these posts I started my survey by retracing and chaining west along the north boundary of Gillmor for the front of my first concession and placing the lot posts thereon at regular intervals, and I ran from the said iron post due north astronomically for my east boundary, planting the posts for the front of each concession at regular intervals as directed and from the posts thus planted in front of my first concession, I surveyed out each alternate lot line and from the posts planted on my east boundary I ran the several concession lines as directed.

At the southwest angle of the township and northwest angle of Gillmor I found P. L. S. Thompson's cedar post lying on the ground marked "Gillmor," and where I found this post I planted a new cedar post marked "Gillmor, Chesley" and "Curtis, Con. 1, Lot 12," and an iron post alongside the same marked Gillmor, Chesley and Curtis, cut with a cold chisel, the names facing the respective townships, and built a stone cairn around the posts.

At the northeast angle of the township I planted a Spruce post marked on the southwest side Curtis, Con. VI. Lot 1, and alongside of this an iron post marked Curtis, cut with a cold chisel, the name facing the township and built a stone cairn around the same.

At the north west angle of the township, which is the northeast angle of the Township of Whitman, I found O. L. S. Bolger's cedar post standing marked "Con. vi. Lot 1," and alongside of this I planted a new cedar post marked "Curtis, Con. vi., Lot 12," on the east side, and Whitman on the west side, and "Con. vi." on the south side, and along side of these posts I drove firmly in the ground an iron post marked "Whitman and Curtis," cut with a cold chisel, and with the name facing the respective townships.

The township throughout is very rough, stony and rocky. The rocky hills reaching from 100 to 300 feet in height, the only good level land being found in the valley of the Garden River.

Garden River, and a fair sized creek which is a branch of the river, traverse the greater portion of the township, and form the outlet for the drainage of the same. The timber of the township can be readily floated down this river during the spring floods. In this river abound the largest sized and finest speckled trout I have ever seen.

The timber consists principally of spruce, cedar, tamarac, maple, birch and balsam, some very good pine being found in the north part of the sixth concession and along the west side of the branch of Garden River; spruce, suitable for pulp-wood, being found in large quantities along the branch of the river and in the southeast portion of the township.

Beaver, red deer, moose and black bear are to be found in the township, judging from the numerous footprints seen during the survey.

No economic minerals were met with during the work of survey.

The variation of the magnetic needle was found to be 4' 15" west, and was very regular throughout the survey.

Trusting you may find the returns of the survey accompanying this report satisfactory,

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES S. LAIRD.

Ontario Land Surveyor.

The Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

TOWNSHIP OF HARROW.

FENELON FALL,

31st December, 1896.

SIR,—I have the honor to report that in accordance with your instructions dated 24th June, 1896, I have made a survey of the Township of Harrow, in the District of Algoma, dividing it into farm lots of 320 acres each.

The total area of this township is 24,227 acres, of which 20,995 acres are land, and 2,182 acres are water, and 1,050 acres are mining lands.

It is bounded on the west by the Hon. Hudson Bay Co.'s property known as Fort La Cloche; on the north by the Township of May; on the east by the Township of McKinnon; and on the south by the "Georgian Bay," and embraces within its bounds the La Cloche mountains, which are the highest on the north shore of Lake Huron.

In going to the field I engaged a tug at Little Current, which landed me on the north shore, as near as I could estimate, to the west boundary of the Township of McKinnon, which I found after a short search. Here, alongside the post which defines the southwest angle of the Township of McKinnon, and in a cairn of stones, I planted an iron post three feet long by one and one-fourth inches in diameter and painted red, the name "Harrow" cut into the west side with a cold chisel, and "McKinnon" cut into the east side.

I then moved my camp north along the boundary to the post between concessions A and I of McKinnon, and that evening, Thursday, 16th of August, observed Polaris for Azimuth, and next day ran my first line—that between concessions A and I, starting from the post between those two concessions in the Township of McKinnon on a course due west astronomically one mile across lots 1 and 2, and turned off the angle for the first sideline, running it due north.

I then moved camp to a small stream a short distance west of sideline 2 and 3, and from there produced concessions A and I, one and one-half miles further also the line between lots 2 and 3 south to Lake Huron and north to the line between concessions II and III, and also concessions I and II, two miles west from the east boundary; when I moved camp west to the line between lots 4 and 5, which I ran north to the line between concessions I and II and south to the lake; also the line between concessions A and I, one mile further west, and the line between lots 6 and 7 south to Lake Huron and north to La Cloche Lake. From this I moved camp west to a point on the north side of the south bay of La Cloche Lake, where I estimated the line between lots 8 and 9 would cross, and from there ran all the lines south of and including the line between concessions II and III to the west boundary, also traversed the south boundary of the township.

I then moved by water to and up McKinnon Creek to the road which leads to Thompson Smith's depot in the Township of McKinnon, and packing one and one-half miles east, camped while I ran all the lines convenient from there and moved north by the line between lots 4 and 5, to the line between concessions IV and V, and from thence in two moves west to the line between lots 8 and 9, and finished the survey in the northwest corner of the township.

I did not find any post at the southwest corner of the township, as mentioned in my instructions, neither did I find any bearing tree at this point. But I was shown the spot where the post had stood by an Indian half-breed, also a few blazed trees indicating the west boundary. Here I planted in a cairn of stones a large cedar post with an iron one alongside of it, both marked "H. B. C." on the west side and "Harrow" on the east side, and marked also a bearing tree. At the northeast and northwest corners I found posts as indicated in my instructions, and planted alongside of each an iron post similar to those at the other two angles, i.e. three feet long by one and one-fourth inches in diameter, painted red, the name "Harrow" cut on one side, and those of the adjacent townships cut on the other sides.

All the other posts are made of the best material available, none less than six inches square, the figures cut into them with a proper marking iron, and bearing trees taken wherever they were to be had.

Harrow was at one time a valuable timber berth, but the pine is now all taken off, except a few thousand pieces near the east end of the first and second concessions.

A great part of the township has been burned over several times. The mountains south of Lake La Cloche are nearly bare, with only a few clusters of small Jack pine, white birch and poplar scattered here and there. But in the deeper valleys between the highest mountain ranges there are still considerable groves of large maple, beech, birch and hemlock, with a dense undergrowth affording food and shelter to Moose and Caribou, which are there in considerable numbers.

Between the two branches of La Cloche Lake the timber is still nearly all green, also on the line between concessions IV and V from the lake on lot 2 to lot 6. The same concession line also passes through green woods from about the middle of lot 10 to the west boundary. Nearly all the remainder of the township north of this, also along the east boundary north of the centre of the second concession is nearly all stripped of timber, the latest fire occurring a year ago last August.

The proportion of good land in the township is small. The mining location 16 P., the property of Messrs. Cutler & Savage, is nearly all good land; also in lot 3, concessions V and VI, there is sufficient good land to make a couple of farms. Also a narrow strip of good land on the north end of lots 6 and 7 in concession 6.

All of concessions V and VI, west of and including lot 8, is good land, with the exception of a few ridges of rock.

The soil is a heavy clay, but has been nearly all burned over and the vegetable mould destroyed. I found settlers on all this section except on lots 11 and 12 in the IVth concession, and two men began underbrushing on those lots the day after I ran the concession line.

They all expressed themselves as being well satisfied with their success during the short time they had been there, and had excellent crops last season.

All the balance of the township is worthless for agriculture. East and south of La Cloche Lake it is one continuous mass of towering mountains with numerous precipices. In one day I had to make two triangulations, it being impossible to chain the line. Small streams are numerous, but some of them dry up in the summer. The water is all of the very purest quality.

The rocks south of La Cloche Lake are chiefly quartzite; those to the north are nearly all granite or gneiss, with occasional outcroppings of Huronian.

The northwest corner of the township is within two miles of the village of Massey Station on the Sault Ste. Marie branch of the C. P. Railway, to which there is a fairly good waggon road. A small amount of money judiciously expended would make a good road into all that part fitted for settlement.

I enclose also my plan and field notes of the survey.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES DICKSON,
"O. I. S."

The Honorable, J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

EASTERN PART OF TOWNSHIP OF TUPPER.

DISTRICT OF ALGOMA.

TILBURY, Nov. 3rd, 1896.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report of the survey of the east part of the Township of Tupper, in the District of Algoma, under instructions from your Department, bearing date the 18th June, 1896.

Procuring teams at Sault Ste. Marie, I started north on what is known as the Government road, with my men and supplies, to the south boundary of Tupper and leaving the Government road a little to the north of this I followed a lumber road easterly across the west part of Tupper or Indian Reserve to within one-half mile from the west limit of lot seven.

I commenced the survey at the southeast angle of the township at a cedar post where I also planted an iron post, made of gas pipe, one and a quarter inches diameter, three feet long, forged at the top and pointed at the bottom and marked with a cold chisel the words "Tupper" on the north-west and "Vankoughnet" on the south. I then retraced the north boundary of Vankoughnet, as the front of my first concession, planting posts thereon at regular intervals of forty chains, as directed in the instructions, until I reached the east boundary of the Indian reserve, surveyed or retraced by O. L. S. Joseph Cozens, in 1893. I did not find any post at this point, merely the intersection of the two lines. I planted a similar iron post in stone mound at this point, marked Tupper on the north and Vankoughnet on the south, and I. R., for Indian reserve, on the west. I then surveyed the other concession lines and side lines, as directed in the instructions, or as nearly so as possible under the circumstances. The west boundary was rather difficult to retrace in some places, as the blazes were rather too far apart in places, and the line not having been run straight.

The township is well watered with numerous small streams, or spring creeks, of nice clear water, and there are quite a number of lakes, varying in size from three or four acres to three or four hundred acres, which abound with beautiful fish, such as black bass, pike, etc. The soil is principally sandy loam of a very good quality, but, owing to the surface being so very rough and hilly, it will not be so well adapted for agricultural purposes as the nature of the soil would entitle it to. There will be about sixty per cent. of the township that will make fairly good farming land.

The township is timbered principally with hardwood, birds-eye maple, white and black birch of medium size, but rather short and scrubby. There is but very little pine in the township, and it is so scattered that it is of very little commercial value. The other kinds of timber are balsam, cedar and spruce.

The township does not appear to ever have been burnt over.

The only game seen throughout the survey was cariboo and partridge, which seemed to be fairly plentiful.

There are no settlers in this part of the township.

No indications of mineral were found in the township, and the variation of the magnetic needle was about four degrees west, and was very regular throughout the survey.

Accompanying this report you will find plans, field notes and account, which, I trust, you will find satisfactory.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. M. TIERNAN,

TOWNSHIP OF SANFORD.

DISTRICT OF RAINY RIVER.

ST. THOMAS, ONTARIO.

19th November, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of the Township of Sanford, in the District of Rainy River, performed under instructions received from your Department, and dated the eighth day of July, 1897.

This township is bounded on the east by the Township of Eton, on the south by the Township of Aubrey, and on the north and west by unsurveyed lands of the Crown.

The southeast and northeast angles were each marked by an iron and a wooden post, as being the southwest and northwest angles respectively, of the township of Eton, surveyed in 1896: the southwest angle was also marked by an iron and a wooden post, planted by O. L. S. Stewart, in his survey of Canadian Pacific Railway and outlines of townships, in 1896, as the southwest angle of township thirty-five (now Sanford).

I commenced the survey at the southeast angle of the township, taking an observation for azimuth, and running due west on the south boundary, on which I planted posts at regular intervals of forty chains, for the front angles of lots in the first concession. I afterwards ran the several concession lines and the north boundary due west astronomically, giving to each concession a depth of eighty chains, and the side lines between lots two and three, four and five, six and seven, eight and nine, ten and eleven, and the west boundary due north astronomically, from their respective posts on the south boundary. I also made a survey of those portions of the Eagle and Wabigoon rivers, and of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which lie within the township.

On each of the concession lines the posts between lots 2 and 3, 4 and 5, etc., were planted at the intersections with the side lines, and marked with the numbers of the lots on the east and west sides, and the numbers of the concessions on the north and south sides. The posts between lots 1 and 2, 3 and 4, etc., were planted so as to give to lots 1, 3, 5, etc., an exact width of forty chains, and marked with the numbers of the lots on the east and west sides, and the numbers of the concession on the north side. On the north boundary posts were planted at the intersections with the side lines, and marked with the numbers of the lots on the east and west sides, and "Con. vi." on the south side. The field notes show in detail the markings of the posts at the angles of the township.

Throughout the course of the survey I made frequent observations for azimuth, excepting for a few days in the northeastern portion of the township, when the weather did not permit. The declination of the needle was observed in various places, and was from six to ten degrees east, averaging six degrees in the eastern part of the township, and six and one-half degrees in the western part.

The sixth and a part of the fifth concession consist mainly of high ridges of rocks. The other portions of the township are undulating, the soil generally being good clay or clay loam, suitable for agricultural purposes, with only an occasional out crop of rock. The land in these portions could be readily cleared, as the timber is not heavy, and in places has been burned off completely. The only large timber in the township is the spruce and tamarac in the swamps at the northeast, and a small grove of pine on the north end of lot 10 in the sixth concession.

The township is crossed from east to west by the Wabigoon River, two chains wide at the east boundary, and nearly five at the west. The current is slow, and the water discolored with clay. On lot 6, in the third concession, it receives the Beaver River, a similar but smaller stream. The Eagle River, which has a width of about five chains, enters the township from the south, on lot twelve, in the first concession, and after traversing part of lots 12 and 11 crosses the west boundary and leaves the township, entering again, however, and joining the Wabigoon on lot 12, in the third concession. This river has a rapid current, clear water and high rocky banks. On lot 11, in the first concession, it has two rapids—one with a fall of about twenty feet, and the other about six feet; either of these would furnish excellent water power.

These rivers, and the Canadian Pacific Railway which passes through the southeast corner of the township, afford ample facilities for reaching any part of the township. Eagle River station is about half a mile to the south, where the railway crosses Eagle River.

There were no settlers or miners in the township at the time of the survey.

Bear, moose, cariboo, duck and partridge were seen during the course of the survey, and indications were that these were very plentiful.

The plan, timber plan and field notes of survey accompany this report.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

GEO. A. McCUBBIN.

TOWNSHIP OF ZEALAND.

DISTRICT OF RAINY RIVER.

SIMCOE, Nov. 12th, 1897.

SIR,—Acting under instructions from you, bearing date July 12th, 1897, I proceeded with the survey of the Township of Zealand, and completed the same in accordance with the accompanying plan and field notes.

I commenced my survey at the southeast angle of the township at a cedar post with an iron post alongside, planted by O. L. S. Stewart in 1896, marked XXXIII on the northwest side, XXXII on the southwest side, and XXXI on the southeast side.

This post I marked 'Zealand' on the northwest side, and then running due west astronomically from it I planted posts at the end of every 40 chains for lots 1, 2 and 3, and continued west until the line intersected the east limit of the mining location, 86 S. V., lot 4, having a width of 47 chains and 56 links.

From this point, where I planted a post marked IV on east side, Con. I on north side, and 86 S. V. on west side, I measured north to S. 218 and east along S. 218 to the west limit of 92 S. V.

Starting again at the southeast angle of the township, I ran due north astronomically from a second observation on Polaris to check the first one from which the south boundary was run, planting posts every 80 chains between concessions I and II, II and III, etc., marking the posts I on the west side and with the respective concession numbers on south and north side, until we reached the end of the sixth mile, where I planted a tamarac post, marked con. VI on south side and 1 on west side, alongside an iron post marked Zealand on south-west side, Con. VI on south side and 1 on west side. As these posts were planted in an open swamp there is no bearing tree, and as there were no stones within three-quarters of a mile no stones were piled around them.

Bearing trees were marked at all posts where a tree of two inches or over could be found.

The east boundary intersected a mining location 116 S. V. in concession I, through which we ran our line, but did not blaze it.

Beginning the second concession line at the post planted 80 chains north of the southeast corner of the township, I ran west astronomically, planting a post at the end of 40 chains, marked 1 on east side, 2 on west side and Con. II on north side, until the line intersected the east limit of Location 117 S. V., where I planted a post marked 117 S. V. on west side, 11 on east side, Con. I on south side and Con. II on north side. From this point I ran due west across 117 S. V., leaving a mark at 80 chains from east boundary to the intersection of the west limit of 117 S. V., where I also planted a post, marking it as before, only using the proper lot number, etc. From here I ran still due west, planting a post 120 chains from the east boundary, and continuing to the east boundary of S. 218, where I planted a post at intersection of the south boundary with 86 S. V.

The concession lines were all started from the east boundary, excepting the sixth, which was run from the southwest angle of lot 4, con. VI, to the east boundary.

Posts were planted at the intersections of all the north and south lines and midway between said intersections, the first named posts being marked with the proper lot numbers on the east and west sides and concession numbers on north and south sides. The latter named posts were similarly marked, except the south side, on which nothing was put.

Where mining locations intersected a line in such a way as to cover the corner of a lot, they were posted as in case of a lake, e. g. 117 S. V., mentioned on con. II above.

When a mining location intersected a line between posts it was not posted, e. g., 116 S. V. on east boundary.

The line between concessions III and IV was run west to O. L. S. Stewart's line between townships XXXIII and XXXIV, as marked. From the intersection of these two lines at O. L. S. Stewart's III mile post, I began a traverse, running first due north to the C. P. R'y, thence up the C. P. R'y, planting the post on Lake Wabigoon between lots 13 and 14 until I had 80 chains of departure, and thence due north until I had 80 chains north latitude from the said III mile post. From this point I ran east to Thunder Lake, west to line between lots 16 and 17, and north 80 chains to con. V.

Concession lines between con. IV and V and V and VI were first run to Thunder Lake and then continued west from Thunder Lake by means of this traverse. As a check on this traverse and line between lots 14 and 15 a line was thrown across Thunder Lake between lots 12 and 13 and its length ascertained by triangulation from a base line between 11 and 12 chains in length. These two lines checked almost exactly when continued to the north boundary.

West of Thunder Lake, Concession VI was first run until it intersected the east boundary of VanHorne township, which it did 3.07 south of the sixth con., VanHorne. Posts were planted every 40 chains along this line until I reached lot 23, which I made 45.70 chains wide.

This sixth concession line was checked by an observation on the sun, as given in field notes, the forest fires after Sept. 15th rendering it almost impossible to catch Polaris at all. From this line the side lines were run north across the sixth concession and south to Lake Wabigoon.

The country west of Thunder Lake is rather open, and as a check on the traverse of Lake Wabigoon the lines were run between every two lots, viz. : 11 and 12, 15 and 16, 17 and 18, 19 and 20, and 22 and 23. These lines were not blazed, but were carefully chained, and are given on the pages in field book as noted in index. The post on Lake Wabigoon between lots 21 and 22 was planted by traverse alone, but all the others were planted by running south, as shewn in field notes, and checked by traverse.

The only post to plant on the north shore of Thunder Lake was planted by running south from the north boundary and was checked by triangulation. This is the post between lots 11 and 12.

Wherever a line crossed the C. P. R. a post was planted on either of the right of way which was, except in the case of Barclay Station grounds, two chains wide, measuring one chain either way at right angles to the centre of the track.

The north boundary, from the north-west angle of lot 14, was the last line to run, and it was continued due west until it intersected the east limit of Vanhorn, 3.18 chains south of the north-east angle of said township. Here I planted a spruce post marked "Con. VI" on the south side and "1 Zealand" on the east side. I did not mark the iron post at the northeast corner of Vanhorne "Zealand" on the south side, as it was not the northwest angle of the township as surveyed. I piled a cairn of large stones around this post at the north angle of the township.

In running the north boundary, posts were planted only where the lines between the alternate lots intersected the boundary.

The fifth concession line across lot 23 was run from the west limit of the township due east astronomically 45.70 chains.

Wherever a line intersected a surveyed location measurements were taken to the corners of the location.

Posts were planted on the north limits of mining locations where they intersected the lot lines (5, 6,) (7, 8,) and (9, 10,) by measuring along said locations, as shewn in field notes, from lines (4, 5,) (6, 7,) and (7, 8).

In the whole township there was only one line that was not intersected by a lake or mining location, and that was the north boundary.

The line between lots 2 and 3 across cons. II, III and IV, as first run, was about 1.40 too far east. This was corrected by starting again from the south boundary and running the line parallel to the east boundary. The notes are for the corrected line.

The magnetic variation was very erratic throughout the township, varying from 0° to 11° east and changing every few chains in the portion of the township. On the sixth concession the variation was from 45° west at south-east angle of lot 1 to 42° E at south-west angle of lot 2.

Thunder Lake was triangulated from two base lines, as given in field notes. The pickets were planted, and sketches made of the shore by means of a canoe, and some of the pickets were used to tie others by angles. This triangulation materially delayed us, owing to the smoky air, which at times made it impossible to catch a sight over 10 or 15 chains in length.

The south shore of Lake Wabigoon was traversed, or triangulated from the west boundary to the mouth of Thunder River, east of which being all taken up by mining locations

Wherever obtainable stones were piled around the posts, and where no bearing tree could be had, considerable trouble was gone to get stones for this purpose.

The mining locations in the township all have gold-bearing quartz on them, but as to whether it is in paying quantities or not can only be ascertained by development. There are still a number of veins "marked up" which will probably be surveyed within the next few months. These are for the most part along the south boundary of the township.

Soil: The soil around the Wabigoon townsite and as far north as fourth concession is generally clay with rock outcropping in places. All west of Thunder Lake is more or less sandy, with rock and clay in places. The northern portion of the township is generally sandy east of Thunder Lake. The rank growth of berry bushes and alders in the clearings speaks well for the fertility of the soil. On the whole I would say that three-fourths of the township is fit for farming purposes.

Timber: The only timber in the township of any value is tamarac and cedar, and all of this of sufficient size, for railway ties have been cut. There are a few jack pine trees about one foot in diameter, scattered over the northeastern part of the township, nearly all of which are defective, having at some time been scorched by fire. Along the east shore of Thunder Lake, and on patches along the north shore of Lake Wabigoon. I found poplar, spruce, birch and cedar, some of which would reach two feet in diameter.

Small jack pines from one to six inches in diameter are the most common, and they are met with everywhere except perhaps in the centre of the swamp. Spruce and poplar come next in about equal proportions.

The timber for the most part is growing, and while the land can generally be easily cleared there is sufficient timber to give an almost inexhaustible supply of firewood and building material for the settlers for many years to come.

Water: The township is generally well watered by a number of creeks, which flow for the most part in a southwesterly direction. Thunder Lake is a beautiful sheet of clear water about three miles long in a northwest and southeast direction, by about two miles wide in a northeasterly direction. It is fed by a number of small creeks from the north and east and empties through Thunder River into Lake Wabigoon. Thunder River leaves the lake by a rapids extending for four or five chains, and then forms a pool which pours over a fall of about 15 feet in height, giving an excellent opportunity for a mill site. The river would be navigable for canoes even in dry seasons, were it not for the sunken logs, etc., which abound along its course.

Settlers: There are about fifteen settlers in the Elm Bay and Barclay district besides some five or six who informed me that they intended beginning to clear at once in the same district, and three or four more intended settlers near Wabigoon. These men all speak in glowing terms of the country, their chief complaint being a lack of communication, by land, with a market. A road could be easily constructed from Elm Bay to Wabigoon and from Elm Bay to Dryden.

A road has been cut from Wabigoon to 114 S. V. since I surveyed that portion of the township, and this could be extended north of 35 V and thence westerly across Thunder River and north of the C. P. R. to Grovers' clearing, from where a wagon road runs to Barclay Station, and from this a road can be built across comparatively open country to the west limit of the township.

This road, along with the road at present being constructed by the C. P. R. from Wabigoon to Minnetakie Lake, would open up a greater part of the township.

Some of the country was exceptionally rough, especially the line between lots 4 and 3, con. III, and between lots 16 and 17, cons. V and VI, and portions of the north boundary. In these places the rock rises to a height of from 100 to 200 feet above the surrounding country, rendering it exceedingly difficult to chain or keep a straight course.

Your obedient servant,

C. C. FAIRCHILD.

BASE AND MERIDIAN LINES.

DISTRICT OF RAINY RIVER.

HALIBURTON, Ontario, November 13th, 1897.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of certain meridian and base lines lying north of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in the District of Rainy River, surveyed under instructions from your Department, dated 10th May, 1897:

Leaving Haliburton on the 12th of May, I reached Ignace on the Canadian Pacific Railway on the 16th, and the following morning commenced taking in my supplies to my starting point, viz., the 30th mile-post on my base line of 1893, east of the fifth meridian.

I reached that point on the 20th, and after obtaining the necessary observations, commenced work on the morning of the 21st and ran north astronomically thirty-six miles, crossing the Sturgeon or English River on the twenty-fourth mile.

Returning to the Sturgeon River, I made my way across the country easterly up the said river and through a chain of lakes to Sturgeon Lake and thence along the northerly shore of that lake to the boundary line between the Districts of Rainy River and Thunder Bay, thence north along that line seven miles to the 120 mile post or the termination of the line run in 1890, the trip across the country occupying a week.

From the 120-mile iron post, I ran west astronomically about sixty miles, or to about where the base line would be intersected by the fifth meridian line.

I then returned along the line to Big Vermilion Lake and taking the canoe route down Vermilion River through Pelican, Abrams, Minnietakie, and Big Sandy Lakes, made my way to the C. P. R., coming down the wagon road to Dinorwic, thence along the C. P. R. easterly about fifteen miles to the fifth meridian line. Going north along that line to its termination, at the sixtieth mile I produced it north astronomically thirty-three miles and from this point ran east 45 c. 83 l. and tied in Indian Reserve No. twenty-eight, striking the west boundary of said Reserve 25 c. 14 l. north of its south-west angle.

Returning to the intersection of the fifth meridian with my fourth base line, I continued it west astronomically to the eighty-ninth mile, and then going south to the northeast angle of Rugby Township, I ran north astronomically a continuation of the sixth meridian, until I intersected the fourth base line, thus completing the work and returning to Haliburton on the 22nd September.

The lines were well cut out, well blazed and carefully measured, wooden posts were planted at every mile, and iron posts at every three miles. Upon the latter, the number of the mile was marked with a cold chisel.

The posts on meridian north-easterly from Ignace were numbered from 1 to 36 miles on the south side, the numbering of posts on fifth meridian was continued from 60 to 93 miles on the south side of the posts, and those on the sixth meridian from 84 miles at northeast angle of Rugby to 90 miles where it intersected the fourth base line were also marked on the south side.

The posts on fourth base line were marked on the east side from 1 to 90 miles, commencing at the 120 mile district boundary posts.

The broken distances at intersections of meridians and base line were not taken into account in the numbering of posts.

The intersections of the Ignace meridian with the fourth base line (in 30 mile lake) was called 36 miles from the third base and 30 miles from the district boundary, an iron post was planted on the meridian at the south side of the lake at 35 miles 49 c. 43 l. and marked "36 miles," likewise an iron post on the base line at the east side of the lake at 28 miles 19.00 c. marked "29 miles."

The post at the intersection of the fifth meridian with fourth base line was marked "90 miles +" on south side and "60 miles—" on east side, while the post at intersection of the sixth meridian with the fourth base line was marked "90 miles +" on south side, and "90 miles—" on east side, stone mounds were built around all posts wherever practicable and bearing trees taken marked "B.T." and course and distance from posts noted.

The post for a mile ending in a lake or river was planted on the line on the nearest land and distance noted and marked on the wooden post.

Iron posts in these cases were marked with a plus or minus sign as the case might be.

The courses given in the field notes from posts to bearing trees are magnetic.

Astronomical observations were taken whenever practicable, generally about six miles apart, the details of which will be found in the field notes, the magnetic declination of the needle was from 5° to 8° east, and I have called the general average 6° 45" east. As will be seen by the plan, the country may be said to be well watered, the lines crossing numerous lakes and streams.

The largest lakes within the limits of the survey are Minnietakie (dirty water) about 25 miles long, and Big Vermilion about 14 miles, the latter is beautifully clear and full of islands, the outlet of both is through the Sturgeon River to Lac Seul, all the water within the limits of the survey is tributary to the Winnipeg River and Hudson's Bay, Sturgeon or English River is a stream from 5 to 20 chains in width, often expanding into lakes with strong current and numerous rapids, the navigation of which is not without danger.

The meridian line commencing north of Ignace runs generally through a hilly broken and rocky country, the soil is mostly sandy and stony, some clay on the 8th, 13th, 20th, 24th, 25th, 26th, 32nd 33rd and 35th miles, the country has been burnt in places at different times, and the timber is small to medium sized, chiefly spruce, white birch, pitch pine, balsam, tamarac in places, very little cedar, and no red or white pine to speak of. Along the fifth meridian line from the 60 mile post to the 72nd mile the country is very hilly, stony and sandy, with large boulders in many places, there is some clay land in the vicinity of Minnietakie Lake on both sides, and also along the line in places to Big Vermilion Lake, the country has nearly all been burnt along this line from the 67th to the 93rd mile, and as far beyond that to the north as could be seen, probably to Lac Seul.

The timber is generally small to medium sized spruce, pitch pine, white birch, balsam, poplar and a few cedar. Along the sixth meridian line the clay extends north to end of 87th mile—the 88th, 89th and 90th miles are rolling and sandy—swampy in places with ridges of sand and stones the brûlé extends from Rugby nearly to the fourth base line and is generally covered with spruce, pitch pine, white birch and poplar of about thirty years' growth. The base line going west from the district boundary runs through a rolling rocky country much cut up by lakes. The soil is generally sandy and stony, very little clay throughout the whole ninety miles.

The line for the first twenty-eight miles passes through green bush, there having been no recent fires along that part of the line, and the timber is in general, spruce, pitch pine, white birch, balsam, poplar, with tamarac and cedar in places. From a hill on the twenty-sixth mile, about 300 feet above Long lake, the country can be seen to the northwest, north and northeast for from twenty to thirty miles. It is rolling with an occasional hill, and there are some very high hills in the far north. The bush is all green (no brulé) and timber, apparently spruce, pitch pine and white birch. From about the twenty-eighth to the middle of the forty-first mile the country has been burnt, the burn extending a considerable distance south and a long way north; very little green timber is left in this area, only in low places. From the forty-first to the fifty-seventh mile the line again passes through green bush and then the country is again burnt to the sixty-sixth mile, from which point to the end of the line there is no brulé with the exception of the eighty-third mile, which touches the edge of the extensive brulé to the south running down to the C. P. R. There is no very valuable timber along the base line; a few red and white pines are found in places and some fairly good pitch pine, the balance is spruce, white birch, balsam, poplar, tamarac and small quantities of cedar. In some places the pitch pine and spruce would be large enough for lumbering purposes. Most of the lakes contain fish of the usual kinds, pike, pickerel etc. Moose and caribou were very plentiful as well as partridge and rabbits; a number of lakes containing beaver were met with and a few bears were also seen. The geological formations passed over were the Laurentian, and Huronian. A number of prospectors were met with about Abrams and Minnetakie lakes, but as Mr. Parks who accompanied me will report on the geology of the country it is unnecessary for me to say more. Herewith are full returns of the survey.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. NIVEN,

Ontario Land Surveyor.

Honorable J. M. GIBSON,

Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

BASE AND MERIDIAN LINES.

DISTRICT OF RAINY RIVER.

TORONTO, 27th November, 1897.

SIR.—I have the honor to submit the following report on the survey of base and meridian lines in the Saw Bill lake region of the district of Rainy river, surveyed under instructions from your Department, dated 12th July, 1897:

I left Toronto on 15th July and proceeded to Wabigoon where I organized the party.

Leaving the Canadian Pacific at Bonheur, the party was divided, some going by the canoe route and the remainder by the new Bonheur-Saw Bill road, to the head of Surprise lake. From this point we continued the journey by the canoe route, through Surprise, Elbow, Red Point, Forbes, Martin and Saw Bill lakes to the Seine waters and Moose lake.

I began the survey at the twenty-fourth mile post, west of the district boundary line, between Thunder Bay and Rainy river, on Ontario Land Surveyor Niven's second base line. This point is marked by an iron bar beside a tamarac post, each bearing on the east side the marks "24 miles." From this bar I ran due north twelve miles, leaving a temporary mark at that distance.

Returning to Seine river, we travelled up that stream to the point where it crosses the district boundary, about half a mile north of the forty-eight mile post on the same. The iron post and pitch pine post in stone mound, placed at the forty-eight mile point by Ontario Land Surveyor Niven, were found, and from this post I ran west astronomically on chords of a parallel of latitude, deflecting the line six minutes north at every six miles, and establishing the last corner at the intersection with the meridian line previously run by me. From this point of intersection, I continued the meridian line north a further distance of twelve miles, completing the twenty-four miles of meridian line as instructed.

I then ran east, astronomically, seven miles, to locate the position of the Bonheur-Saw Bill road, and this concluded the survey.

The lines were well cut out and blazed, wooden posts, marked with the mile numbers, were planted at every mile, and iron posts, numbered with a cold chisel, were planted at every three miles. The numbers were in all cases placed on the side of the post nearest the commencement of the line to which it belonged.

Where the end of the mile came in a lake or river, I planted the post or posts on the line at the nearest land with the number of mile and fraction. Wherever practicable, a stone mound was placed about the post, and bearing trees marked and noted.

Frequent observations, details of which accompany the field notes, were taken during the progress of the work. The magnetic variation was generally uniform, and averaged about five degrees east of astronomic north.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

On the meridian line, the country is rocky and hilly, and broken by numerous lakes and streams, prominent among which are the Moose lake on the first mile, River Seine on the fifth mile, Saw Bill lake on the sixth and seventh, and Clearwater lake on the eighth and ninth miles. The soil is chiefly stony and sandy.

The portion of the meridian to the south of Clearwater lake has been over-run with fire at different times during the past thirty years, and a very small proportion of the timber now standing is of any commercial value. The prevailing varieties are spruce, jack pine, poplar, birch, balsam and cedar, with occasional red and white pine trees of good quality. To the north of Clearwater lake the timber is green and consists of jack pine, spruce, birch and poplar, of fair size, a considerable quantity being suitable for railway ties and pulpwood.

On the twenty-four mile base line, the face of the country is similar to that on the meridian. In the third mile from the district boundary, the Seine river is crossed, being at this point a stream about two hundred feet in width and eight feet in depth, with moderate current. The Bonheur-Saw Bill wagon road was crossed in the twentieth mile, and the canoe route, by way of Red Paint lake, in the twenty-first mile. In the first six miles the prevailing kinds of timber are second growth poplar, birch and jack pine, of little value, with occasional clumps of the original forest trees.

Early in the seventh mile an area of white pine, with trees from twenty to fifty inches in diameter, begins and continues as far as the middle of the eleventh mile. This area of pine land was visible for a distance of two to three miles on each side of the line. Much of this timber is of fair quality, the remainder being "faulty." The Seine river and its tributaries will furnish an outlet for this timber when required. From the eleventh to the eighteenth mile the timber is chiefly jack pine, spruce, tamarac, poplar and birch, up to fifteen inches in diameter, with occasional small areas of white pine of fair quality.

Brulé, of about ten to twenty years, covers the distance between the eighteenth and twenty-first miles, the remainder of the line to the west of Red Paint lake passing through green jack pine, spruce, tamarac and birch, averaging about eight inches in diameter.

On the second or seven mile base line the physical features and timber, as far as the fourth mile, are similar to that on the north part of meridian line. From the fourth mile to the east end of this base, the timber is of better quality, being chiefly large white birch, spruce, tamarac and poplar. About half a mile east of the meridian line, and between the twentieth and twenty-fourth miles on the same, and extending easterly to Surprise lake, there is a considerable area covered with white pine, from twenty to forty inches in diameter, and of good quality. By way of lake Gamble and several smaller lakes, this timber would find an outlet to Surprise lake and the Bonheur-Saw Bill road. The Bonheur-Saw Bill road crosses this base on the seventh mile.

The soil on the base lines is of the same character as that on the meridian line, a very small proportion being for agricultural purposes. The number of mining locations laid out, and the mines already in operation, are good indications of the mineral wealth of the region.

Special attention has been paid to the geological features of this region by the Geological Survey department of the Dominion government.

The Huronian formation predominates, but in many places the Laurentian outcrops.

The general character of the rock formation met with on the various lines seems to promise as rich a field for exploring as the more accessible parts have already yielded to the prospector.

The water in the streams and lakes is generally of good quality, and well stocked with fish.

Evidences of large game were frequently seen.

Accompanying this report, I beg to transmit field notes and a plan showing the lines, together with such additional information as to water routes, etc., as could be gathered during the progress of the survey.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

T. B. SPEIGHT,

Ontario Land Surveyor.

To the Honorable J. M. GIBSON,

Commissioner of Crown Lands,

Toronto.

THE SUPERINTENDENT
OF
COLONIZATION ROADS.

To the Honorable J. M. GIBSON,
Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Ontario.

SIR,—I have the honor to present the annual report of the Colonization Roads branch of the Crown Lands Department for the year 1897, including Mining Roads, for which special appropriations were made at the last session of Parliament.

Of Colonization Roads one hundred and six and a quarter miles were constructed and six hundred and sixty-eight and a half miles repaired. Twenty-four bridges of various dimensions were erected, aggregating a total length of three thousand and eighty-two feet.

Of Mining Roads there were fifty-one and three-quarters miles opened, and some three miles improved besides the erection of two large dams; details for all of which are given in the following report and summary:

COLONIZATION ROADS.

NORTH DIVISION.

BALFOUR ROADS.

Three and a quarter miles have been chopped, cleared and grubbed, beginning between lots 4 and 5 of the 2nd concession of Balfour, and thence one mile south to the 1st concession, and thence west two miles, with sixty rods cleared and opened opposite lot number one.

BAR RIVER BRIDGE.

A bridge renewed on the Port Finlay road in the township of Laird.

It is 120 feet long, composed chiefly of pile lents, good stringers and covering of two-inch plank.

BRUCE MINES AND OPHIR ROAD.

^{Bridge-Repairs} Repairs of bridge and washout in Plummer, the bridge costing $60, and saving timber and bridge iron, $15.

BRIDGE REPAIRS.

The repair of Paipoonge and Kaministiquia bridges in West Algoma.

BRUCE MINES AND DESERT LAKE ROAD.

Two miles and one-eighth were this year opened from last year's operations extending now to within about one mile of the road which it is intended to reach.

CARPENTER AND LASH ROAD.

This work commenced from that previously done, namely, south half of lot number 8, concession 1, Carpenter, and was continued across the south halves of lots 7 and 6, and to the southwest corner of lot number 5.

The chopping and grubbing were heavy, and the road was opened forty feet wide throughout.

CHELMSFORD CREEK BRIDGE.

This bridge, which is over Chelmsford Creek, on the town line between Balfour and Rayside is to replace one carried away by freshets.

It is a pile structure and well and substantially constructed.

COFFIN AND COFFIN ADDITIONAL ROADS.

Half a mile opened on blind line across lot 5 in the 2nd concession to give an outlet to the main road, and half a mile was substantially repaired across lot 1 in the 1st concession, both the above being in Coffin Additional. A mile and three-quarters was also repaired in the east side of Desert Lake in Plummer township.

COFFIN AND GALBRAITH BOUNDARY ROAD.

The repair of a very bad hill on the boundary line named, and in the first concession. An excellent job is reported.

CROZIER AND LASH ROAD.

The chief work was cutting a ditch toward a lake for the purpose of reclaiming a quantity of land, and to assist in grading the road bed.

The creek which empties into Rainy River on lot 12; River Range, Township of Aylesworth, was cleaned out a distance of two miles and fifty-five chains, and a ditch made from thence between sections thirty-five and thirty-six twenty-six chains, to strike the town line between Aylesworth and Lash, and thence east on said town line fifty-seven chains, leaving yet about a mile to open before the lake is reached.

The bush and timber was chopped out twenty-five feet wide, the ditches being about five feet wide with average depth of about three and a half feet, and, the inspector says, should be opened to the lake.

EATE'S HILL AND McLEAN'S MOUNTAIN ROAD.

A work between lots 5 and 6, concession 6. Howland, on Manitoulin Island, being the repair of a very rough portion through the 7th concession a quarter of a mile long.

GALBRAITH SECOND CONCESSION ROAD.

This portion of road, which is across a tamarac swamp, was ditched across lot 8 and half of lot 9, and grubbed and cleared across lot number 7, something like three-quarters of a mile.

GLADSTONE FOURTH CONCESSION ROAD.

Beginning at Lake Chibleau, on the 3rd concession between lots 10 and 11, work was continued west one mile, thence south forty rods, thence again west half a mile, making over two miles of new road opened in a very satisfactory manner.

GRAND PORTAGE ROAD.

A mile and three-quarters of repairs from the termination of last year's operations, namely, lot number 12, concession 1, township of Wells, north-easterly to the 2nd concession, between lots 8 and 9.

It was a rough, stony section, but is now an excellent road, and will doubtless be so for a long period.

HONORA BAY ROAD.

The completion of a low swampy section between lots 28 and 29 through concessions 8 to 11 of the township of Bidwell, the distance being a little more than two miles.

KEEWATIN BRIDGE PIERS.

The expenditure in this instance was made in preparing the foundations for piers which were supplied by contract with the Central Bridge and Engineering Company of Peterborough, and now in place, ready for the superstructure. The same company are under contract to construct and complete the bridge, material for which is upon the ground, but not yet in place. Unusual water freshets have added somewhat to the cost of pier foundations and appear to have prevented the bridge company completing the contract at an earlier date.

LAKE SHORE ROAD.

A mile and three-quarters opened, and a bridge with a twenty-two-feet span erected in the township of Lefroy.

LA CLOCHE BRIDGE.

A bridge 158 feet long built over La Cloche creek opposite Massey station on the "Soo Branch" composed of one large crib and five bents. Approaches to the bridge were also made.

LEE'S ROAD.

Three miles of excellent road opened from concession 3 on the boundary between May and Hallam north and east toward Webbwood.

LITTLE CURRENT AND SAEQUINDAH ROAD.

Very substantial work in repairing through concessions 2 and 3 of Howland, some two miles.

MANITOWANING AND MICHAEL'S BAY ROAD.

Five miles of repairs from lot 17, concession 1, Assignac, eastward; two miles being ditched, and three gravelled.

MILLER'S BRIDGE.

A bridge 240 feet long built over Thessalon river at Bell's Rapids in the township of Lefroy. It is comprised of six twenty-four feet spans; two of eighteen feet and three of ten feet resting upon eight cribs filled with stone. The grant of $300 is a contribution, the balance of cost having been borne by the settlers.

MINDEMOYA ROAD.

Repairs from the fifth to the fifteenth side road along the sixth concession of Tehkummah; and on the fifth side line south to Michael's Bay, a length altogether of four miles.

MINDEMOYA AND SANDFIELD ROAD.

Work commenced on the second concession of Sandfield and continued through to Carnarvon, grading and gravelling about three-quarters of a mile.

MUDGE AND GORE BAY ROAD.

Three miles of very substantial and permanent repairs in the township of Allen on Manitoulin Island between concessions 8 and 9, and from lot No. 15 eastward.

OLIVER TOWNSHIP ROADS.

Repairs from the town line between Oliver and McIntyre on the second concession to Murillo station—three and a quarter miles; and on the line between lots 7 and 8 on the second and third concession line, two miles.

OTTER TAIL CREEK DAM.

A contribution of $500 to assist in the repair and reconstruction of a dam at the foot of Otter Tail lake in Bruce Mines district.

The inspector reported, recommending the grant, urging as a reason that the breaking away of the existing old structure would endanger and probably carry away six Government bridges.

The cost of renewal was, according to the attested statement furnished, $1,114, and the inspector reports the work as strong and substantial.

PARKE TOWNSHIP ROAD.

This work, begun last year, is now completed, this year's operations being from sections 11 and 12 between sections 13 and 14 to Algoma Park on Lake Superior—a mile and a quarter of road opened.

PARKINSON ROAD.

Two and a half miles of construction beginning between lots 8 and 9 concession 3, Parkinson, thence north one-quarter mile, thence east half a mile and thence north a mile and three-quarters. It was somewhat easy of construction, and therefore the overseer was enabled to make two and a half miles for the appropriation.

PORT FINLAY AND MCKAY'S ROAD.

One portion of this work is on a blind line from Port Finlay west to McKay's mill, three-quarters of a mile; a second portion being on the fifth concession line of Tarbutt, extending east of Port Finlay road two miles. Another section a quarter of a mile long was repaired.

PRINCE TOWNSHIP ROAD.

Between lots 19 and 20 of this township there was three-quarters of a mile of heavy grading done along a deep ravine requiring a cutting through almost the entire length.

RAINY RIVER ROAD.

The repair of two sections of a very heavy character, one being from the east side of lot 12, River Range, township of Woodyatt, westward to the west side of lot 17 of the same township and called Big Forks section; the other, called Pine River section, being from east side of lot 25, River Range, in the township of Dilke, westward to the west side of lot 30, and altogether a mile and a quarter of grubbing and heavy ditching.

RAYSIDE ROADS.

This expenditure was upon several roads in the township, to benefit as large a number of settlers as possible. Improvements were made on the town line of Balfour and Rayside; between concessions 2 and 3, 4 and 5; and on east Rayside road, some four miles of work.

ROBINSON, DAWSON AND BURPEE ROADS.

These townships are on Manitoulin Island. Nearly three miles of new road were opened in Dawson township, and repairs were made over sections in Dawson and Burpee, amounting to about four miles.

SAVANNE BRIDGE.

A substantial bridge was built over Savanne river, ninety-six feet long with main piers twelve feet high. Over a mile and a quarter of road was also opened between the Canadian Pacific Railway station and Savanne village.

This work was begun last year but unfinished for lack of money, and is still in need of gravel to make it available at all seasons.

ST. JOSEPH ISLAND ROADS.

Altogether there were three and a quarter miles of ditching, grading and other improvements made upon the Island, and a mile and a quarter of new road opened, as follows: On P line from the 20th side line eastward, repairs were made over a mile and a quarter. A heavy hill was cut down on the R line and on the 13th concession a mile of grading and gravelling from S and T line north.

Three-quarters of a mile was well improved on K line from Huron line west, and one mile of excellent grading from D line south on Huron line.

On the 16th concession line from F and G line three-quarters of a mile was chopped out southward and U line was extended half a mile opposite concessions 12 and 13, the distance being chopped out and levelled.

SLATE RIVER VALLEY ROAD.

About two miles and a half opened, commencing at concession A on line between lots 10 and 11 Paipoonge, thence south one hundred chains, thence west twenty chains, and thence again south to concession 4.

The line between lot 15 and 16 was also opened southward twenty-five chains, and at the latter point a bridge was constructed over a creek, the bridge having a clear opening of twenty-five feet. A ditch, twenty chains long, was, in addition, opened on lots 8 and 9.

The above work will be of great advantage to a settlement which has increased rapidly in the past few years.

SPANISH RIVER AND KENABUTCH ROAD.

Three miles of grading from the Indian Reservation towards Spanish river.

TARENTORUS AND RANKIN BOUNDARY ROAD.

An expenditure of $49.50 for the repair of a bridge.

Its main span is a fifty-feet King truss, resting at each end upon eight piles. There are additional bents at each end, making the length of the bridge eighty feet.

VERMILLION RIVER BRIDGE.

A large and substantial bridge built over Vermillion river at Whitefish on the Soo branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway. There are two spans of 100 feet in the clear, and a total length of 258 feet.

The main spans rest upon cut-water piers, fourteen feet above low water mark, each filled with stone and each truss well housed for protection against weather.

VICTORIA AND SALTER T. L. ROAD.

Three-quarters of a mile of grading on the town line and the rebuilding of a bridge carried away last spring.

WABIGOON BRIDGE.

A structure composed mainly of five spans, averaging thirty feet to thirty-seven feet, all king post trusses. The bridge is over Wabigoon river at Dryden village, and as the river separates large farming areas, was absolutely necessary to give access to the only market there.

The work is of a most substantial character and ought to last for a great many years.

WAINWRIGHT AND ETON ROADS.

Twelve miles and a half of new road were opened this season, that is to say ; from the bridge across Wabigoon river just described and near foot of rapids at Dryden westward to the line between lots 5 and 6, and concessions 5 and 6, Van Horne, about half a mile, thence north between concession 5 and 6 half a mile to the line between lots 6 and 7, thence north half a mile to the town line between Wainwright and VanHorne, thence west on town line one mile, thence north between lots 8 and 9, one mile to the 1st and 2nd concession line, thence west on last named line five miles to the line between lots 6 and 7 of the township of Eton and thence northward between the lots last mentioned somewhat over three and a half miles to Wabigoon river.

WOODYATT ROAD.

A ditch from a small lake on lot 33, River range, was opened to drain the land eastward into a creek, its dimensions being three feet deep, five feet wide and length forty-seven chains.

A single drain was also opened from the same lot, fifty-five chains long, the material of which was used in grading the Woodyatt road to its intersection with Crozier and Lash road.

A mile of repairs was made north of Crozier and Lash road, and another mile from the N. E. quarter of section 17 to N. E. quarter of section 30 was graded over one-half its length and the remainder partially opened and cross-wayed, making altogether about one mile of new road and two of repairs.

The opening of a mile and three-quarters, beginning at the town line of Armour and extending southward through lots 32 and 33 concession 14 of Perry, and thence angling through lots 33 and 34 concession 13, to unite with Kearney No. 1 road.

The location was made by the municipality to give an outlet for settlers in the southeast portion of Armour and others to the railway.

ARMOUR AND STRONG ROAD.

A mile and a quarter opened through heavily timbered land across the 13th and 14th concessions of Armour, connecting with work of last season, opening thus a road to Burk's Falls for settlers in Strong and eastern portion of Chapman.

BAXTER BRIDGES.

A principal work was the renewal of a structure over the Severn River between the townships of Baxter and Matchedash over which is the only outlet the inhabitants of Baxter have to a market. The new bridge has one fifty-six feet span and another of forty feet which with the approaches give a total length of 112 feet.

A second bridge was renewed over "Little Chute" in Baxter, and on the main and only road there; having a twenty-two feet span and length of seventy feet.

BETHUNE 25 AND 26 SIDE LINE ROAD.

The construction of a mile and a quarter on the side line named through concessions 11 and 12. A deviation was made on lot 25 concession 12 for which the right of way was secured. Some 40 rods are reported as yet unopened and which would make connection with the 12th and 13th concession road.

BETHUNE 5 AND 6 SIDE LINE ROAD.

Repairs from concession 9, extending towards Lynx lake, representing one mile properly graded through a heavy section of the township.

CHAPMAN AND LOUNT T. L. ROAD.

This was a somewhat expensive piece of work through a low tamarac swamp on the town line mentioned, extending from lot number 2 eastward nearly a mile and a quarter, and involving 163 rods of crosswaying.

CHRISTIE No. 2 ROAD.

A mile and a half of heavy work, chiefly the filling up of an opening over a creek on the town line of Humphrey and Christie to open communication between Rosseau and the railway at Maple Lake station.

CHRISTIE AND FOLEY ROAD.

Something like one mile has been chopped out and graded beginning between concessions 9 and 10 of Foley and extending southward.

Repairs from Muskoka road extending eastward a mile and three-quarters. It is the main road for many eastern townships to the railway, and was scarcely travelable prior to these improvements.

DRAPER 7TH CON. ROAD.

The general improvement and widening of that opened last year. The length is two and a half miles, costing some $200, aided by a municipal grant last year of $50.

DISTRESS RIVER BRIDGE.

A bridge having a fifty-eight feet queen truss span resting upon piers composed of ten piles each was built over Distress River on Magnetawan road.

More than half a mile of road was also made about two very heavy and steep hills, and was necessary to make bridge and road available for general traffic.

GOLDEN VALLEY ROAD.

Repairs from about lot number 15, concession 10 of Mills township to within about half a mile of the Mills and Wilson road.

The distance was two and a half miles, being grading, including tap drains and twenty-one stone culverts. It is the chief road in that district.

GOUGH BRIDGE.

The renewal of a bridge between lots 20 and 21 and concessions 14 and 15 of Himsworth. Its length over all is 122 feet and replaces one built many years ago.

GURD ROAD.

This work was the opening of a difficult portion through a rocky and mountainous section.

It is over a mile long and passes through lots 22 to 26 in the 6th concession of Gurd. It is, the Inspector says, one of the most useful works of the season.

HIMSWORTH 5 AND 6 SIDE LINE ROAD.

A mile and a half opened beginning at concession 11 and extending south.

The road allowance could not be followed throughout owing to the roughness of the country and deviations were made upon lot 5, concession 10 and lot 6, concession 9.

JOLY BRIDGE.

A bridge over Magnetawan river between concessions 2 and 3 of Joly with a forty-eight foot span and length of sixty feet, costing about $200.

Repairs were made too on the 4th and 5th concession line of the same township opposite lot 14, of a very dangerous hill some 500 feet long which cost $150

KEARNEY No. 1 ROAD.

Two and three-quarter miles of repairs, continuing from work of two years ago, on the 3rd concession of Proudfoot, now ending at the town line of Bethune. This road is through a rough broken country but is a very necessary and useful one for settlers.

LAURIER 12 AND 13 CON. LINE ROAD.

From lot number 25 improvements were made one mile into the township of Machar, leading to Trout Creek station. The length repaired was nearly a mile and a half.

MCAUMOND'S BRIDGE.

MAGNETAWAN ROAD.

Something like two miles of repairs made, eighty-seven rods being a deviation through heavily timbered land. The work was from lot 17, concession 9, of Croft towards Ah-mic harbor.

MAGNETAWAN RIVER BRIDGE.

A work not yet completed.

McDOUGALL ROAD.

One mile of work, largely the covering of rocky sections to make the road passable, from lot 9, concession 2, McDougall, eastward.

Between McDougall and McKellar townships, from Junction No. 2 road northward, two miles were grubbed and fairly graded, enabling settlers about Hurdsville to reach a cheese factory, which will be a decided advantage.

MILLS AND GOLDEN VALLEY ROAD.

The opening of one mile from the eighth concession of Mills, southerly, and again on the south end of lot number 2, concession 5, almost half a mile of repairs were made.

MONTEITH AND PERRY ROAD.

Two miles of repairs over an almost impassable section, from Rosseau and Nipissing road eastward, in the township of Monteith, leading to Seguin Falls railway station.

Settlers are by this highway enabled to reach Bear Lake station on the railway, as they have, without assistance, opened the road through concessions 9 and 10.

MUSKOKA AND BOBCAYGEON ROAD.

Between lot 16, concession 13 and lot 5, concession 5, Franklin, a length of six and a half miles was very well repaired and the road generally reported as in a fairly good condition.

NORTH-WEST ROAD.

This is the main and only opened road between Parry Sound and Byng Inlet and is used chiefly in winter. It passes through the townships of McDougall, Carling, Shawanaga, Harrison and Wallbridge and is about fifty miles in length.

Repairs have this year been made over twenty-nine miles and the bridges over Shawanaga and other rivers and streams along the route carefully and firmly repaired or renewed.

The Holland and Emery Lumber Company furnished all the necessary planking for bridges without charge, in lieu, to some extent, of the benefit which they may enjoy in having a travelable winter road. Teams have already passed over the entire length.

RAMA BRIDGES.

This grant was a contribution towards the renewal of several bridges in the township of Rama.

The inspector has reported that material is upon the ground for two steel bridges, that a bridge across Boyd's creek has been renewed, and one over Black river repaired. The expenditure by the township will therefore be a large one.

ROSSEAU AND NIPISSING ROAD.

This was the repair of a serious washout on Commanda Creek valley, involving the filling in of about one thousand cubic yards of material in order to restore the road to its original usefulness.

RYDE CENTRE ROAD.

Beginning at the third concession of Ryde, near Lewisham, two and a quarter miles were opened southward to the town line of Dalton, and portions of the same were graded.

Another mile was opened in the latter named township to the Dalton and Washago road, completing an intended connection, but in a somewhat rough manner through want of more money.

SEGUIN RIVER BRIDGE.

A new bridge having a 40 feet clear span and total length of 58 feet built over Seguin River on the Rosseau and Nipissing road in the township of Monteith. A 50 feet approach at one end and one 100 feet long at the other were also well and firmly made.

North Seguin bridge, with two lesser ones and some bad hills, were at the same time repaired and improved.

SINCLAIR AND FRANKLIN T. L. ROAD.

A floating bridge across the Muskoka river, between concessions 2 and 3 of Stephenson township. It is 258 feet long and composed chiefly of four main stringers of dry pine and a covering of 2-inch pine plank, which supports the loads, and is reported as a satisfactory work.

STISTED 12 AND 13 CON. ROAD.

This was the opening of 192 rods, leaving yet 100 rods to fully complete, although the latter length has been opened as a winter road.

The work was from lot 6 westward on the concession line mentioned, making a desirable road for a settlement in Stisted to reach Rosseau.

A road two miles and a half in length opened and well graded from about the line between the Townships of Tiny and Penetanguishene, passing through concession 17; the Government Reserve, and onward.

The conditions of this grant were that $600 would be given after the municipality had expended at least $1,500.

WESTPHALIA ROAD.

A grant of $50 for replanking a bridge, the plank being supplied by the municipality.

WILLETT ROAD.

A mile and three-quarters of repairs between Rose's Point and Parry Harbor. It is a road over which there is very heavy teaming from the railway.

Again, beginning on the same town line where the line between lots 5 and 6 intersects it, half a mile was opened southward on the last named line, making two miles altogether from Eganville, leading to Renfrew.

Ten miles of repairs from lot number 3 concession 2 Anstruther (near Apsley) to lot 38, concession 13.

Again, from lot 5, concession 2 Garrow, work was continued in a northeasterly direction to lot 6, concession 4 of Scadding, on the shore of Massey Bay on Lake Wahnipitæ. A mile and a quarter opened across lots 32 to 35 leading to the railway.

WISAWASA ROAD.

The grading of three-quarters of a mile through the 13th concession of Chisholm to meet the road now opened between concessions 12 and 13.

A mile and a half was also partially repaired making—the inspector says—good roads in that township.

WYLIE ROAD.

Repairs from Chalk river station on the Canadian Pacific Railway about four miles, all in the township of Wylie.

MINING ROADS.

BONHEUR AND SAW BILL LAKE ROAD.

In making this location three routes were considered, namely: from Martin, English River, and Bonheur.

As to distance and grades there was no serious difference, but the line from Bonheur was selected because of less swamp and consequently less crosswaying to be done and which latter is always expensive, and if it can be avoided, undesirable.

The road begins at Bonheur station of the Canadian Pacific Railway and from thence is made in a southwesterly direction until it crosses Gull river when a still more southwesterly course is followed so as to cross the portage between Gull lake and Surprise lake keeping close to the latter lake.

Owing to the rough country between Gull lake and Red Paint lake it became necessary to keep further westward, and, when within two miles of Red Paint lake the line was changed a little eastward to get about the lake, but from this point a fairly direct course was taken to Saw Bill lake.

The entire length of road is thirty and a half miles, chopped out thirty feet wide, grubbed twenty feet wide and graded the entire length, excepting the length crosswayed which aggregates a distance of five miles and a half.

Three bridges only occur over the entire distance, and each has but an opening or span of 40 feet.

Upon the first five, and last mile the timber was light: but the balance was of heavy growth, and the labor of opening it by no means easy.

Two rather heavy hills occur on the line which could not be avoided, but teams have hauled 2,400 pounds over them without much difficulty, and with some further outlay in improving these and covering crossways for protection against fire, it may be characterized as a good road, and the best mining road ever built in the country.

JACKFISH BAY AND LONG LAKE ROAD.

A continuation from last year's operations a little over three miles to mining location 220, passing through a rough, broken area, but easy grades have been secured and the work understood to be very satisfactory.

RAT PORTAGE AND RAINY LAKE ROAD.

This road was continued from near Hilly lake almost to mining location 219—or Pine Portage mine. There is a very considerable amount of traffic over this road to mines, and the inspector says it should be continued to Long Lake Narrows.

ROSSLAND ROAD.

A road opened from the vicinity of Rat Portage through lands which are in some degree agricultural, but leading principally to mines and mining lands. The length is some 5 miles and the road is an excellent one. A larger expenditure was made than at first contemplated, and it is desirable that an additional sum be given to complete the work and pay the men employed.

SCHREIBER BRIDGE.

A structure of 104 feet long, having three spans of 26 feet each and two spans of 15 feet each, with two main piers 22½ feet high. It crosses a deep ravine near the village of Schreiber, and was a necessary work to give access to mining and other lands.

SHOAL LAKE AND BAD VERMILLION ROAD.

Half a mile of road was opened towards Bad Vermillion lake, partly on mining location 712P; and from a point about half a mile from Mine Centre two miles and a quarter were repaired reaching to what is known as Sand Hill.

Portions of the road had been crosswayed by the Ferguson Mining Company, but it was not sufficiently wide for general traffic.

TURTLE LAKE ROAD.

This road was commenced at a bay on Bad Vermillion lake, near the south-east corner of mining location H.P. 98, from whence it was continued north-westerly to Turtle lake, passing through about the centre of mining location H.P. 439—a distance of three and a quarter miles, all of which was graded and opened forty feet wide. This road connects with Shoal Lake and Bad Vermillion mining road by water in summer and ice during the winter months.

WABIGOON MANITOU, AND RAINY LAKE ROAD.

Beginning at the head of Minnehaha lake this road is constructed to and passes over to Trafalgar bay on Lake Manitou, a length of, practically, seven miles and a half. The district through which the road is made is hilly but good grades have been established and the whole length well graded, excepting a mile and a half which was crosswayed.

In connection with this work and in terms of the appropriation, a dam was constructed on Manitou river 248 feet long and eight feet high from the mud sill, with a stop-log gate twelve feet wide, and a waste-gate also. The effect of this dam is to raise the water sufficiently to provide navigation over the entire length of Manitou lake, which is about fifty miles.

A second dam was built above the falls of Wabigoon river at the village of Dryden. This structure is 140 feet long, from five to eight feet in height, built of squared timber throughout, and of a most substantial character. It is built up to what is understood to be high water mark of the lake, the effect of which will be and is making navigable the whole length of Lake Wabigoon, some thirty miles.

REPORT
OF THE
IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT .

FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 1897.

To the Honorable JOHN DRYDEN, M.P.P.,

Commissioner of Immigration.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the operations of the Immigration Department for the twelve months ending 31st December, 1897.

As compared with 1896, there was a decrease of 723, and with 1895 of 1,668, in the number of immigrants reported as having settled in this Province during 1897, the total number being 3,718.

The foregoing figures take no account of the immigrants reaching this Province from New York or other United States ports otherwise than by way of Montreal. But it was apparent as in former years, that a considerable number had so reached Ontario, either direct from the port of landing, or after a brief but ineffectual effort to find employment in the States. However, as these arrivals have not been included in the returns since 1892, their omission does not effect the general result which, as shewn by the official figures, indicates that the falling off in the arrivals for 1897 is in keeping with the experience of the previous eight years.

I am indebted to the courtesy of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa, and the Dominion Agents at Halifax, St. John, N.B., Quebec and Montreal, for the reports appended, and for co-operation generally in promoting the interests of immigration. From these reports the accompanying statement A has been compiled, giving the particulars as to number, nationality and occupation of those immigrants only who arrived at these ports with the declared intention of settling in Ontario, and omitting the details of monthly arrivals, and of the arrivals destined for other places in the Dominion and for the United States.

There is comparatively little change to be noted between the average proportion of the nationalities of the immigrants of 1897 and of those of recent years. From seventy per cent. in 1895, the English have dropped to sixty-five, and the Irish from seven per cent. to six and a-half, while the Scotch have risen from ten per cent. to twelve and a-half, and all other nationalities from thirteen per cent. to sixteen.

With respect to the occupations so far as classified the preponderance of general laborers is much less than in 1896, when the number was about three times as many as that of farmers and farm laborers combined. This year the farmers and farm laborers combined total 489, or 40 more than in the previous year, whereas the general laborers show a falling off of 464, indicating that the immigration though restricted, has been of a more satisfactory character upon the whole than that of 1896. Mechanics, clerks and traders show a slight increase, while the number of domestic servants reported is about twenty per cent. less than in the previous year. The proportion of the total number classified under the several occupations for men in 1896, was twenty-one and one-half per cent. of farmers and farm laborers to seventy-eight and one-half per cent. of general laborers, mechanics, clerks and traders. For 1897, the percentage is twenty-nine and seventy-one respectively, but notwithstanding this large proportionate reduction in the number of general laborers, they continue as a class to be the least desirable of immigrants, for as stated in last year's report, when clerks, warehousemen and mechanics—young men—make up their minds to go to farm work, they generally succeed in becoming efficient farm hands; but the "general laborer," having in many cases grown up without training in any fixed employment, is seldom a desirable acquisition on the farm, and as a consequence he drifts into the cities, where there is already an abundant supply of his class.

The returns from the several homes in this Province, under the management of philanthropic individuals or societies, show a total of 924 juvenile immigrants for 1897, being less by 369 than the number brought in under the same auspices during the previous year, and 595 less than the annual average for the five years, from 1891 to 1895 inclusive.

During the past year, the demand for farm hands was very little in excess of the supply. The one exception to this was, as in previous years, with respect to first-class experienced workmen. These are always in demand, and may safely count upon good situations, especially during the spring months. But present indications do not warrant the expectation that there will be any great increase in the demand for agricultural laborers from the older settled portions of the Province. In the northern districts, however, the great activity in mining operations will give an additional value to the unoccupied agricultural lands, and a fresh stimulus to settlement. The prospects of the early construction of railway and other works, encourage the hope of an industrial revival that may provide employment for large numbers, and lead to a greatly increased influx of population to these districts.

The rate of wages in 1897 was about the same as in the previous year, and it is not probable that it will be subject to much change during the season of 1898.

ANNUAL REPORT OF PETER BYRNE, ESQ., IMMIGRATION AGENT, LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT AGENCY,

9, JAMES STREET,

LIVERPOOL, December 22nd, 1897.

HON. JOHN DRYDEN,

*Minister of Agriculture, etc., etc.,
Toronto.*

DEAR SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report of the work of this agency for the year 1897.

I have continued to pursue the same course of procedure as in past years, namely, to diffuse as widely as possible and by every means in my power an accurate knowledge of the varied resources of our Province and the advantages it offers as a place of settlement to the practical agriculturist: and especially to persons possessed of more or less capital for investment in land and in mining or manufacturing enterprises.

It goes without saying that the efforts of those engaged in making the varied attractions and advantages of Canada better known to the British public have this year been much assisted by the notable events connected with the great Jubilee celebration in which the representatives of the Dominion took so prominent and so distinguished a part. Never before in her history had Canada's claims to notice received such friendly and universal recognition in the Mother Country as on that memorable occasion. The gratifying results of that auspicious event have been reinforced by the reports of an excellent harvest, with good prices for grain and other products, in Ontario and the Dominion generally; and by the more exciting, if not more important, news of further rich gold discoveries and successful mining developments in our own Province as well as other portions of British America. This fortunate combination of circumstances has to a considerable extent produced a fresh interest in emigration and a consequent increase in the number of inquiries at this agency, especially from persons anxious for the latest particulars regarding mining and other undertakings of a promising character. This increased demand for information has of course been stimulated as usual by advertising and by occasional press notices and lectures: and by the free distribution of handbooks, pamphlets and leaflets.

The office advertisement has been inserted for varying periods in upwards of 400 different newspapers, including all the principal agricultural journals, thus reaching the tenant farmer and rural classes generally. Our new illustrated handbook has also been, and will continue to be, an important factor in more forcibly drawing attention to Ontario. Its illustrations are very attractive and appropriate and greatly enhance its value as a guide to the Province. I forwarded copies of it to the editors of several hundred newspapers with a request that they would review it in their respective columns. Among the considerable number of papers that complied was "The Times," the leading journal of the Empire. The notice it gave was most valuable and interesting. These newspaper notices, and especially that of "The Times," created a great demand for the book, hundreds of applications for it being received within a few days of their appearance. I have likewise sent copies of the work for distribution to the office of the High Commissioner in London and to the Dominion Government agents in other places: to the Canada section of the Imperial Institute: to the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railway agencies, and to the offices of the principal Canadian steamship lines. I have, besides, handed over to the latter a number of bound volumes to be placed in the libraries of their several steamers for the use of passengers. Bound copies have also been sent to all the public free libraries in the United Kingdom. Some of the librarians have asked for more, and Birmingham, in particular, made an application for twelve additional copies for use in its branch libraries. A large number of the ordinary handbooks were disposed of through the efforts and good-will of two gentlemen having business relations with Ontario and who are interested in its welfare. With their assistance 1,100 of the books have been addressed to an equal number of leading manufacturers and other business firms of good standing in all parts of the country. Other important distributions of the handbook I am just carrying out, namely, to the members of the British Parliament and to all farmers' clubs and institutions in the three kingdoms.

In the course of the summer I got printed several thousand leaflets, containing an interesting article on the gold fields of Ontario, from a London financial journal, and have had them largely circulated through some of the leading steamship agents, as well as directly from the office, with our other publications. I have also disposed of about 2,000 "Jubilee Globes," forwarded to me for distribution. I addressed them to the reading rooms of the principal hotels, hydros, clubs and public libraries, etc., throughout the British Isles. The artistic excellence of this splendid publication elicited expressions of admiration from many of those who received it.

I recently received from the Crown Lands Department a welcome supply of another publication, namely, the new "Northern District" pamphlet, which affords much satisfaction to persons anxious to learn all about the agricultural capabilities of the lands, in the neighborhood of the gold fields. For it is beginning to be realized by many people who apply to me for information that the gold-mining districts will ere long become profitable markets for all kinds of farm produce. The pamphlet referred to also gives details regarding mining locations, prices of mining lands, and other particulars, which are just what was wanted to meet the popular demand for reliable intelligence regarding the gold-mining industry. As a rule, I send a copy of this pamphlet along with the general hand-book to every correspondent who is eligible as an emigrant, and who manifests a desire to become a settler in the Province. Yet another valuable consignment of printed matter has just come to hand as I write, from the Bureau of Mines. It consists (1) of a goodly number of Professor Coleman's "Report for the Year 1896, with Maps"; (2) a supply of copies of the Mining Act; (3) some large wall-maps of the northwest of Ontario; (4) a number of small pamphlets descriptive of the Michipicoten Division, and the remarkable gold discoveries recently made there. All these I have been frequently asked for of late by mining experts, capitalists, journalists and others belonging to the more important class of inquirers, whom I shall now be able to supply. I am already sending copies of the Report to the leading mining and financial journals for review, and the bulk of the remainder I shall send to the free libraries in the principal towns throughout the country.

In view of the very great interest that has been excited in the country by the Ontario gold discoveries, and especially by the successful results already achieved by the working of several mines. I would respectfully venture to suggest that an excellent means of stimulating the flow of capital from the Old Country into the mining districts, would be to place on exhibition in the business centres of the chief cities, and especially the metropolis, selected samples of rich ores, showing visible gold, together with gilt models of the bricks of bullion already produced by the mines in active operation. I believe such displays would be object-lessons of incalculable value to the Province, tending strongly to attract not capital alone but an enterprising class of settlers as well.

Early in the year I delivered, by request, two lectures, in London—one at the Imperial Institute, and the other under the auspices of the South Place Ethical Society, on “The History, Institutions and Natural Resources of Ontario.” The lectures, which were attended by good audiences, were illustrated by lantern slides of Ontario landscape scenes, and others illustrative of various staple industries, such as fruit-growing, dairying, lumbering, mining, etc.

On the night of the Jubilee celebration a stereopticon exhibition of Canadian views, chiefly Ontario scenes, was given in front of the Ontario Agency and Canadian Pacific Railway offices, Liverpool, which was witnessed and admired by great crowds of people. I co-operated with the Canadian Pacific Railway agent in carrying out this most effective display.

In the course of the year I visited various parts of the country on business connected with the agency. I find it important to keep in touch with the principal passenger agents of the steamship companies, who naturally exercise much influence over intending emigrants. I have endeavored to keep them informed regarding the general prospects for emigrants in Ontario, carefully specifying those most required as settlers, and most likely to succeed; and warning them against advising the emigration of classes of people for whom there is at present no demand in the Province. In the several towns I have visited, I have made it a point to call at the free libraries and public reading-rooms, supplying them with copies of our publications for the use of the public.

In June I attended the Royal Agricultural Show, which was this year held at Manchester, and arranged for the distribution of a quantity of our literature among the tenant farmers and others in attendance. I also visited the Fat Cattle Show at Birmingham last month, and had interviews with the local agents with whom I discussed emigration matters and left them copies of our latest publications for the information of themselves and their clients.

In my report for 1896, I was able to say that the importation of apples from Canada and the States into this country was quite phenomenal in magnitude, and that in consequence there was a glut in the market, and prices went down so low as to cause very serious losses on many shipments. This season the opposite state of things has been experienced, with the result that prices are high, and handsome profits are being realised by those fortunate enough to have good crops to ship. Last year the retail price of good apples in Liverpool was as low as 8 shillings per barrel. This year they are from 30 shillings to 40 shillings per barrel. The quantity imported into Liverpool last season up to the end of December was 1,159,791 barrels; this season up to the 15th December, the quantity imported reaches only 272,002 barrels.

For shipments of tender fruits from Ontario this season met with a fairly good market, except in the case of grapes, against which a prejudice seems to exist among buyers, which it may take some time to remove. The only way to succeed is to persevere in sending only the choicest kinds, and to place them on the market in prime condition. Thus the English taste may be eventually educated to appreciate the produce of Ontario vines, when a strong demand and good prices may be expected.

The general character of emigration for the year may be considered to have been a good average. In point of numbers, the returns, when complete, will be found to vary little from those of 1896. Except for strikes and lock-outs, which have prevailed notable those of the Welsh quarrymen and engineers, the working classes of this country have on the whole been fairly well employed during the year, at good wages. The farmers have also had a very favourable year, crops being generally good with a considerable rise in the market prices of wheat and other products.

The inquiries regarding emigration have come, as usual, from persons connected with many kinds of occupations, and not only from all parts of the United Kingdom, but also from the most distant parts of the globe; but in all cases, I have, as heretofore, been careful to encourage only such intending emigrants as were manifestly self dependent and capable of making their own way and becoming good and desirable settlers. Of this class are small farmers and others possessed of capital, and who intend taking up land and devoting themselves to agriculture; also to persons generally of independent means, especially those with young families to educate, and to whom cheap living and good schools are highly appreciated advantages. Quite a number of mining engineers, working miners and others have applied to me for information as to the prospect of obtaining employment in the new gold fields. I have not advised or encouraged them to go out on the chance of finding work at the mines, but I have given them all the information I could, and left them to judge for themselves as to the prospects. Ordinary working men, whether artisans or labourers, clerks, professional men, teachers, etc., I continue to dissuade from emigrating at present. There have been very few inquiries during the year from female domestics who are in such demand in the Mother Country, that, unless under special circumstances, they are not generally disposed to seek their fortunes in the Colonies. But those who are so inclined, are naturally attracted to Australia, which gives them practically free passages. Hence we are heavily handicapped in our efforts to induce this useful but independent class of persons to proceed to the Dominion.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

P. BYRNE.

Agent for Ontario.

ANNUAL REPORT OF DUNCAN BOLE, IMMIGRATION AGENT,
SAULT STE. MARIE, ONTARIO.

SAULT STE MARIE, ONT., January 4th, 1898.

DAVID SPENCE, ESQ.,

*Secretary of Immigration,
Toronto.*

DEAR SIR,—I herewith send you my annual report for the twelve months ending December 31st, 1897.

The past year has been fairly good, so far as obtaining immigrants has been concerned; as between the months of May and December I have assisted in locating 119 families in Algoma and Nipissing; the greater part of them coming from England, Ireland, Scotland, Germany, France and the United States, and not a few from the older parts of the Province of Ontario. Many of them possessed sufficient money and stock and implements to start farming operations at once, while others are content to start in a more primitive way. The majority located in Goulais Bay, St. Joseph's Island, and Townships of Macdonald, Laird, Coffin and Thessalon, and in the vicinity of Desbarats, Dean Lake, Blind River, Massey, Webbwood, Nairn, Chelmsford and Rayside. On the line between Sault Ste. Marie and North Bay are to be seen quite a number of fresh clearings, an odd church, a new school house here and there, all going to show that this vast district is being settled by a hardy and an industrious people. During the past year many of the old farmers who thought they were through clearing land are taking a fresh start, as it is not uncommon to see new fallows of 2, 5 and as high as 20 acres being cleared up. The exceptionally good prices obtainable here during the past year for all sorts of farm stock and products has given the farmer fresh courage, and he has started afresh again.

I have had ocular proof of the advantages and necessity for advertising our district in foreign lands, as at least eight out of every ten foreign immigrants had in their possession a copy of "Our Northern Districts" or "Algoma Farmers Testify," issued from the Crown Lands Department, and Algoma Land and Colonization Company or Sault Ste. Marie respectively.

The opening up of the Township of Vankoughnet by the Ontario Government will also assist in settling up this vast district, as it contains large tracts of as fine hardwood land as the sun ever shown upon. Already several have located on it, and there are numerous enquiries from others about it. I think the season for 1898 will be the best we have ever seen in Algoma.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JOHN HOOLAHAN, ESQ., DOMINION IMMIGRATION AGENT, MONTREAL.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT IMMIGRATION AGENCY,
MONTREAL, January 1st, 1898.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to enclose herewith my annual report of the work of this agency for the year ending the 31st December, 1897, together with a statement showing the number, nationality, destination of the immigrant arrivals at Montreal, via the United States.

Hoping the same will prove satisfactory.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

Dominion Immigration Agent.DAVID SPENCE, ESQ.,
Secretary, Department of Immigration,
Toronto, Ont.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT IMMIGRATION AGENCY.

MONTREAL, December 31st, 1897

DAVID SPENCE, ESQ.,
Secretary for Department of Immigration for Ontario,
Toronto, Ont.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit for your information a brief report of the agency for the year ending 31st December, 1897.

IMMIGRATION STATISTICS.

There was a record kept at this agency of the number of immigrant arrivals at Montreal via the United States. The statement A, hereto annexed, will give full particulars of the same.

There is, however, no record kept of the European immigrant steerage passengers who are obliged to disembark at the ports of Quebec, Halifax, N.S., or St. John, N.B., as the case may be, all such emigrants are accounted for at these ports: the first and second class passengers being brought up by the steamships during the season of St. Lawrence navigation and landed at this port.

A GOOD CLASS OF IMMIGRANTS.

It is pleasant to be able to state that the immigrants who had arrived here this year and declared their intention of remaining in Canada have been of a distinctively good class. All were healthy, intelligent and industrious, and well supplied with funds with which to pay not only their transportation to their various destinations, but sufficient to establish themselves in their new homes.

THE LABOUR MARKET.

On this subject I may say that there has been a fair demand for unskilled labour, that is to say that able-bodied men willing to work were in demand for work on railways, canals, the wharves and municipal work, etc. The wages paid were about the same as in 1896, ranging from one dollar to one fifty per day.

In the matter of agricultural labourers the demand has been greater than the supply all through the season for farm labourers, whether single or with families.

Under the head of mechanics I must report that there has been but very little request for this class of labour, due to the fact that the market is well supplied on the spot, and quite sufficient to meet all the requirements of manufacturers, etc.

The demand for clerks, bookkeepers, and people of such like clerical avocations, has been very dull.

Persons of this class find much difficulty in securing employment, and several when they meet with failure seek other work, such as farming, etc. This class should not be encouraged to emigrate unless they come to join friends or to enter into a position already secured for them. There is a good demand in the spring for men who have a knowledge of gardening, provided that they are steady, sober and industrious workmen. Touching the matter of female domestics, the difficulty of obtaining well-trained respectable domestics in sufficient numbers to meet the demand for them remains as hard as ever, and the scarcity of this class of help continues on the increase. This is owing to the numerous industries which continue to spring up, and which furnish employment for young girls which they prefer to that of being in service. The new arrivals willing to take service on arrival in Montreal found no difficulty in obtaining situations.

JUVENILE IMMIGRATION.

The juvenile immigrants who have come in during the year just closed are an improvement on those of the years before. The superintendent and matron have been careful in placing their charges in respectable families and in comfortable surroundings, generally with families in the country districts. They are visited also in their new homes by the respective superintendents and the government inspector charged with this duty.

HEALTHY IMMIGRANTS.

The general health of the immigrants arriving during the year has been good and there has been no instance of any contagious disease in their ranks. This is no doubt due to the excellent supervision maintained by the medical staff at Grosse Isle. I have, however, to report two cases of sickness, one accident and one death.

TRANSPORTATION.

It gives me pleasure to state that all the steamship companies, including the Allan, Dominion and Beaver Lines, as well as the two big railway companies, the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk, have done everything in their power to make things easy and pleasant for the immigrants, not only on the passage across but after arrival, and the officers of both the steamship and railway companies have been assiduous in looking after the welfare of new arrivals.

PROSPECTS.

The prospect for a very large immigration during the coming season is a very encouraging one. This is proved in a very great degree by the large amount of correspondence this agency has been in receipt of from Great Britain and Ireland, the continent and the United States. The writers ask for information touching upon the government lands in Ontario, Manitoba, North-West Territories and British Columbia, rates of wages for mechanics and agriculturalists, prospects for employment, cost of transportation and in other heads, the knowledge of which would be useful to intending settlers. In many of these letters references are made to the British Columbia and Klondike gold fields, and I anticipate a large influx of immigrants bound for these two points in Montreal early next spring. We have had many inquiries about land conditions in Quebec and Ontario, and of these a large percentage are from the United States. In every instance this agency has replied by sending all the information asked for.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion I desire to thank you for the valuable co-operation and assistance rendered in promoting the interests of immigration.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN HOOLAHAN,

Dominion Government Immigration Agent.

ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
INSPECTOR OF DIVISION COURTS
FOR THE
PROVINCE OF ONTARIO
FOR THE YEAR 1897.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR OF DIVISION COURTS,
PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO, December 31, 1897.

To His Honor

THE HON. SIR OLIVER MOWAT, K.C.M.G.,
Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR:

I have the honor to submit the following report upon the Division Courts of the Province for the year ending 31st December, 1897.

SUITS ENTERED—RESULTS.

In the accompanying tables full details will be found of the business transacted.

Table A shews, under the proper heads, the number of suits entered, amount of claims, total amount of suitors' money paid into court and total paid out, and other miscellaneous information.

From these returns it will be seen that the suits entered numbered 49,167, exclusive of transcripts of judgments and judgment summonses. The total claims aggregated $1,905,123. The moneys paid into court amounted to $552,863, and the amount paid out, $548,566. As a very large proportion of the suits entered are settled between the parties out of court, and of which no returns are made, it will be understood that the figures given by no means represent the full collecting powers of the court.

REVENUE.

The returns of percentages payable to the Treasury give a total of $5,195.16 for the year as revenue from Division Courts.

JURY TRIALS—JURY FUND.

The total of trials, by juries summoned numbered, according to the returns, 157. The amount paid to jurors so summoned, $1,604. Amount paid to County Treasurers for Division Courts jury fund, $1,687.66. The figures continue to support the assurance of the sufficiency of the fund to meet the demands upon it.

APPOINTMENTS TO VACANCIES.

There were ten appointments to vacancies of clerkships, caused by resignations and deaths, the deaths during the year numbering five. Twenty-four vacancies in bailiffships were filled, six of which were caused by death, and the others through resignations. This is a very noticeable decrease in the returns of previous years. In the report for the preceding year, the figures given were—vacancies in clerkships, 21; vacancies in the office of bailiff, 28.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE—DEPUTIES.

Leave of absence for varying periods, not exceeding two months, was given 57 clerks and 53 bailiffs, whose appointments of deputies were approved. The figures stand much the same as those of the previous year, when papers were made out and transmitted to 59 clerks and 57 bailiffs.

COMPLAINTS—INSPECTION.

The duties of outside inspection occupied the chief portion of my time during the year. The wide extent of territory and the large number of offices to be visited require unceasing and continuous travelling from point to point. Then investigations into the more serious complaints preferred against officers take up a good deal of time—for the enquiry can only be conveniently and properly made at the clerk's office, no matter how distant, where the books and papers can be examined and the witnesses produced.

There is no diminution in the actual number of complaints against officers, although I have to repeat the observation made in my last year's report, that not a few of those made proved upon enquiry to be without just foundation. I feel it also my duty to report that I find the great majority of the officers of the courts careful and diligent in the performance of their duties, and to bear testimony to the intelligence and integrity with which those duties are discharged.

The charges against delinquents were of the usual character: neglect in making prompt returns, withholding suitors' moneys and not giving the required notice of payments made. In every case of complaint prompt enquiry followed the laying of the charge. And the large numbers of letters of thanks from suitors to the Department testify to the good results that followed.

Complaints by clerks against other clerks, because of the non-payment of "foreign fees," still continue to be made in too many instances, although, I am pleased to be able to report that in most cases a ready response has been made when official attention has been directed to the neglect of this duty.

Many complaints are still also received as to the neglect of clerks in answering letters of suitors. This is an offence that always causes annoyance and frequently leads to trouble and inconvenience. No officer of the courts who has any proper understanding of the courtesy and consideration due to others will be an offender in this respect. The rule requires that return postage should be enclosed in every case by those asking for information. When this is done the officer can have no excuse and is obliged to answer. If he fail to do so, the habitual offender who neglects this necessary duty will be speedily brought to realize the result of his misconduct.

Another duty which some clerks appear to overlook, and of which complaints have been made, is the failure to collect interest. This should be attended to in every case and the calculation and addition of interest made with the same carefulness as in giving the figures of the debt and costs.

DELAYING RETURNS.

All returns are due on the 15th of January. Those officers who neglect to send in their returns by that date are defaulters and run the risk of being reported for their neglect. Whilst I am pleased to say that the great bulk of the clerks and bailiffs are prompt in sending in their annual returns at the time the law requires, there are a few incorrigibles who keep them back and who cause the Department much trouble. Year after year the same unready clerks are guilty of similar neglect, and thus keep back the earlier printing of the annual report. Such wilful neglect will not be tolerated hereafter and severe measures will be taken to punish delinquents who set the rules at defiance and who can furnish no adequate reason for disobeying the law.

BONDS AND COVENANTS.

I am pleased to be able to report that an increasing number of the officers of the courts continue to take advantage of the security offered by guarantee companies. Such a course is in every respect to be commended. It makes clerks and bailiffs much more independent than if they had to resort to private friends and place themselves under personal obligations. The charges are now brought so very low, fifty cents on the $100, that no officer who values his independence will go outside a guarantee company for the security required from him.

CHANGES IN THE ACT.

In the newly revised Statutes, R. S. O. 1897, all amendments since the revision of 1887 are introduced in their proper places in the Act. This has caused alterations to be made in the numbering of the sections of the Act, and also in an extension of the sections from 304 to 312 sections.

Some further important amendments were made by the Legislature at its last session, copies of which were mailed from the Department to every officer of the court.

I have the honor to be

Your Honor's obedient servant.

J. DICKEY.

Inspector.

The six Months' Licenses and the Licenses extended do not appear in the above Schedule or recapitulation, and as a consequence the total number of Licenses issued, according to the Statement, does not correspond with the number as shown in Schedules A and C. Beer and Wine Licenses are included with the ordinary licenses, under the heads of Tavern Licenses and Vessel Licenses respectively. An extended license is good for a period not exceeding three months. It is not in the nature of a new license, but simply a permission, granted by the Board of Commissioners, to the holder of a license expiring in April, to continue his business under the old license for the specified period, that he may be enabled to dispose of his stock on hand and quit the business without loss. Six Months' Licenses run from the first day of May to the thirty-first day of October, and are not valid after the latter date. They are granted in localities which are largely resorted to in summer by visitors, where the Board of Commissioners are of the opinion that increased tavern accommodation for the summer months is necessary.

SCHEDULE C.

REPORT OF THE ARCHITECT.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS, ONTARIO,
TORONTO, December, 31st, 1897

Hon. William Harty, Commissioner of Public Works, Ontario :

SIR,—I have the honour to present the following report of the work done by this branch, during the past year in erecting, completing, altering and repairing the different buildings, etc., throughout the Province.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

The ordinary and necessary repairs have been made to the buildings as required. The grounds have also been kept in good order.

NEW PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS

Three large offices have been fitted up on the third floor at the north end of the east wing, with passage leading to same. The steam heating and electric plant has been extended throughout these apartments, which are finished in keeping with other portions of the building; the work, with the exception of the painting, glazing and plastering, having been done by men in the employ of the Department. The painting and glazing was done under contract by Mr. M. O'Connor, whose tender was the lowest; and the plaster work by Mr. Joseph Murphy, his tender being also the lowest.

A circular staircase of iron has been erected in the northeast corner of the main entrance corridor, adjacent to the surveys branch of the Crown Lands Department, to give convenient access to the Draughtmen's office, and the room occupied by the Association of Provincial Land Surveyors in the basement.

Appropriate illuminations were placed over the upper portions of the front of central building, in honour of the celebration of Her Majesty's Jubilee, in June last, the work having been designed by and erected under the superintendence of the Department.

A house for plants has been erected to the north of the buildings, and is now completed, with the exception of the heating and equipment. A main drain and a main steam pipe has been laid to same. An ash elevator has been erected in the boiler house which is run by an electric motor at a slight cost.

Ordinary repairs have been attended to, and the building and equipment kept in good condition generally. Great care has been taken to keep the grounds, roads and walks in thorough order, the work having been done under the supervision of the Departmental Superintendent of Walks and Gardens.

ASYLUM FOR INSANE, TORONTO.

The work in connection with this Institution has been done under the Inspector of Asylums, etc.

ASYLUM FOR INSANE, MIMICO.

Building operations were commenced early in the season on the Chapel and Amusement Hall, and the building is now nearing completion. A large proportion of the work has been done by Institution labour, under the foreman carpenter and foreman bricklayer, and under the supervision of this Department.

In consequence of the continual freezing of the in-take pipe from the lake, in connection with the water supply, during the last two winters, owing to low water, and as the engine at the pumping station had to be kept constantly pumping, at a large expense, for a considerable time to prevent a water famine, it was deemed advisable to put in another in-take pipe of the same size to the east of the crib work, sunk below the line of frost. Tenders were duly called for, and the contract awarded to the lowest tenderers, Messrs. McQuillan & Co., of Toronto, who have carried out their contract in a satisfactory manner under the supervision of the Department. The new pipe is 312 feet in length, extending 32 feet beyond the present cribwork where it joins the old pipe in deep water. From this point it is laid with a fall inwards to a well, which has been constructed close to pump house 12 feet in diameter by 26 feet in depth, the water being conveyed to the well by gravitation, and from thence is pumped into the filter and supplied through the mains. The old in-take pipe will be used as an auxiliary should an accident occur to the new pipe, which can be shut off from same by a valve. The system has been fairly tested and proved to be satisfactory, a good head of water standing in the well with pumps working under full pressure.

ASYLUM FOR INSANE, LONDON.

Owing to the dilapidated condition of some portions of the north building, it was found necessary to make considerable repairs. The flooring and joists in basement having become badly decayed have been removed and new flooring and joists laid, the earth under the whole being first removed to a depth of 18 inches in the centre, giving ample space for ventilation. Surface drains have been laid throughout, and fresh air admitted through ventilating shafts on each side. The scheme has proved to be very effective, and has greatly improved the sanitation of the building.

It was also found necessary to remove the shingles from the roof of centre portion of building, as they were old and decayed. These were replaced by slates, and the flashings, valleys, hips, etc., were renewed with galvanized iron. The work has been executed in a satisfactory manner, under the supervision of the Department, by contractor John Purdom of London, whose tender was the lowest in each case. Considerable repairs will yet have to be made to this building, and it is proposed to continue the work during the next season.

Necessary repairs have been made to the roofs, eaves, conductors, etc., of other buildings in connection with the institution. The alterations to Farmers' House have been completed, the work having been partially done by institution labor. A hydrant for fire protection has been placed near the barn, and connected with the water supply system. The materials were purchased by the Department, and the work done by institution labor.

ASYLUM FOR INSANE, HAMILTON.

The infirmary building in connection with this institution has been completed with the exception of an hydraulic elevator, which it is proposed to put in to facilitate the removal of patients, and the equipment of the operating room, which will require special fittings.

An additional steam boiler has been placed in the west boiler house of the main building, to supply steam for cooking kettles which have been placed in the east house, and for pump in connection with the fire protection system. REPORT OF THE ENGINEER.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS, ONTARIO,
TORONTO, December 31st, 1897.

HON. WM. HARTY, Commissioner of Public Works, Ontario :

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the following report on the works constructed and improvements and repairs attended to by the Department; also respecting the extension of railways throughout the Province during the year 1897:—

GEORGIAN BAY.

An appropriation of $1,000.00 was granted last session to enable further improvements to be made to what is known as the inside channel between Parry Sound and Midland, and the works which have been attended to are as follows:—

At a point known as the "Devil's Elbow," situated about nine miles southerly from Parry Sound, two shoals of rock which seriously interfered with navigation during low water have been removed by blasting—one for a length of sixty-five feet and an average width of fifteen feet six inches; and the other for a length of fifteen feet and a width of six feet; the average depth of excavation on both being three feet six inches; and a rocky projection situated a short distance southerly from the above has been improved by having about six feet blasted from the end of it.

Two other points—one at the north-westerly end of the seven mile narrows, and the other at the northeasterly end of the "Two Mile" narrows have also been improved by blasting; and nine buoys have been placed indicating where shoals exist and the proper position of the channels; two being at the Devil's Elbow, two between it and Seven Mile narrows, two at Five Mile narrows, one about half a mile below Two Mile narrows and one above, also one opposite Moose Point.

The work was commenced about the middle of May and continued until the 23rd of July, when the depth of water at the shallowest point in the channel was eight feet six inches.

PENINSULA CREEK IMPROVEMENT.

The improvement of this channel, which connects Fairy and Peninsula Lakes, has been continued during the present year, the works attended to being as follows:—

As stated in my report of 1896, the dredging was completed for a length of 2,100 feet from the Peninsula Lake end, and to a width of forty-five feet and a depth of eight feet at low water, when operations for that year were suspended.

The work was again resumed in the month of April of the present year, and continued until the 5th August, when the channel had been dredged into Fairy Lake, a further distance of 2,610 feet to a similar width and depth.

Upon the completion of the dredging, the close piling of the sides of the channel at various points was commenced, the work being put in where the material in the banks seemed to indicate that it was likely to be effected to such an extent by the wash from the steamers, that it would in a short time find its way into the recently dredged portion of the canal.

The work was commenced at the end of the old cribwork on the northerly side of the channel, above the highway bridge, and continued down to the bridge pier—a distance of 276 feet, and two sections having a total length of 214 feet were also put in on the southerly side of the channel a short distance below the bridge.

The face piling is all of sawn cedar and is formed with 10x10 inch square piles, twenty feet in length, driven ten feet apart from centres, with closely driven piling between eight inches in thickness and eighteen feet in length, the whole being secured to round anchor piles twenty feet in length driven at ten feet centres and twelve feet back, with 6x10 inch pine ties, which are securely bolted to both anchor piles, and 10x10 inch piles in front, and the face work is provided with two courses of 8x12 inch pine waling, which is boxed in one inch on each side, and securely fastened with $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch wrought iron bolts; the tops of the piles being covered with a 3x14 inch capping piece to protect them from the weather.

Some piles were also driven at the end of a section of the old cribwork above the bridge, and fastened to same with $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch bolts to prevent settlement, owing to the face of the cribbing being undermined by the water, and some additional stone filling has been put in the cribwork, and new top timbers provided where required to replace decayed material.

The roadway bridge across the canal has been provided with eight cast iron angle pieces for the top chords to replace the wooden caps which had become in a decayed and unsafe condition; and some repairs have also been made to the handrail.

GULL AND BURNT RIVER WORKS.

The dam at the outlet of Percy Lake in the township of Harbarn having become in a decayed and unsafe condition has been rebuilt during the present year.

The new structure consists of a main dam and slide and two wings, the total length of which is 243 feet.

The main dam is 123 feet in length, twelve feet in width, and an average height of eleven feet with slide opening in same seventeen feet in width.

The northerly wing is seventy-four feet in length, eight feet in width, and averages four feet in height.

The southerly wing is forty-six feet in length, eight feet in width and an average height of five feet.

The structure is constructed with 10x12 inch hemlock timber fastened together with 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch oak trenails and $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch square iron drift bolts; the cribwork being filled with stone.

The stop log platform—thirty feet in length and twelve feet in width—is constructed with 12x12 square stringers covered with 3-inch planking; and the necessary windlasses and chains required for raising and lowering the stop-logs have been provided.

The slide—thirty-four feet in length and twelve feet in width—is constructed with framed bents formed of 12-inch square timber, placed five feet apart from centres, the sills being covered with six-inch hardwood flooring, securely fastened with $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch iron drift bolts, and the sides averaging four feet in height are formed with 10x12-inch hemlock timber.

As the lake, which is controlled by this dam, has a superficial area of 1,100 acres, it is a reservoir which is of considerable importance, not only to the lumbermen, but also to persons interested in milling and navigation on the chain of waters into which it empties.

MARY'S AND FAIRY LAKES WORKS.

The improvements and repairs which have been made to these works during the present year are as follows:—

The dam at the outlet of Mary's Lake at Port Sydney has been entirely rebuilt for a length of 138 feet at the easterly end. The new portion consists of two piers sixteen feet in length and eight feet six inches in width, and one pier twenty feet in length and twelve feet in width: the average height of the whole being about seven feet.

The foundation timbers of the piers are neatly fitted and bolted to the rock with 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch bolts, and the stop-log sills in three of the openings have been attended to in a similar manner.

The easterly opening is provided with flooring, the sills being securely bolted and the spaces between filled with concrete and the whole covered with six-inch birch flooring sixteen feet in length, which is fastened with $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch iron drift bolts.

The timber work throughout is of hemlock, with the exception of stop-logs and stop-log posts, which are of pine, the cribbing being fastened together with $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch iron drift bolts and compactly filled with stone.

The stop-log platform has been entirely rebuilt for a length of 143 feet, and to a width of twelve feet with 10x12-inch hemlock stringers and three-inch pine planking fastened to same with 7x $\frac{3}{8}$ -inch spikes. The westerly end of the old platform has also been replanked for a length of thirty-three feet, and a hand-railing has been provided along the entire southerly side of the platform, in order to guard against accident.

The old windlasses for raising and lowering the stop logs have been dispensed with, and two cast iron winches provided instead, which can be moved along a track extending from end to end of the dam.

These appliances will greatly facilitate the handling of the logs, and will lessen the cost of maintenance of the structure, as the frequent renewals and repairs which required to be made to the windlasses and frames will now of course be done away with.

Repairs have been made to the dam across the river below the rapids, and some additional stone filling has been put in the piers which support the boom, and about 150 feet of new boom has been supplied to replace a portion which was carried away during high water, and the old booms have been strengthened by additional bolting.

FAIRY LAKE DAM, ETC.

The dam at the outlet of this lake, situated alongside the lock on the Muskoka river, about one and a half miles southerly from the village of Huntsville, has been entirely re-built.

The new structure, 167 feet in length and an average height of nine feet, is provided with four stop-log openings, three twenty-four feet in width and one twenty-two feet eight inches; and there is also a flume to a mill fifteen feet in width.

The pier at the westerly end of the dam is twenty feet in length at the face and eighteen feet in width, with ends well splayed into the bank, and the balance of the piers are twenty-six feet in length, including cutwater, and ten feet in width.

The cribwork is constructed with 10x12 inch hemlock timber, fastened together with $\frac{7}{8}$ -inch iron drift bolts twenty-two inches in length, the bottom timbers being bedded in Portland cement concrete and rock bolted; and the entire cribbing is compactly filled with stone.

The stop-logs and posts and stringers for stop-log platform are of pine, and the flooring is of three-inch pine planking, fastened with 7"x $\frac{3}{8}$ " spikes, the length of platform being 149 feet and the width twelve feet.

The dam is also supplied with the necessary track and cast-iron winches to enable the stop-logs to be raised and lowered as desirable.

In order to properly carry out the work it was necessary to construct a coffer-dam across the river at a narrows above, the length being 125 feet and the depth of water eight feet six inches in the centre of the channel. This structure was, of course, removed at as early a date as possible, the gravel put in to make it water-tight being taken out by the departmental dredge, which was working during the summer a short distance away on the improvement of Peninsula creek.

The pier which supports the guide boom to the canal above the lock has been taken down and rebuilt two twelve-inch courses of timber in height; and the glance pier below the westerly end of the dam, forty-two feet in length and ten feet in width, has been reconstructed for a height of five feet, the cribwork being filled with stone and gravel, and a large rock which interfered with the passage of timber has been blasted and removed from the bed of the river a short distance below the dam.

The upper end of the cribbing at the entrance to the canal above the lock has been sheeted with two thicknesses of one-inch lumber, and the top course of timber on the cribbing on the easterly side of the channel below the lock has been renewed for a length of 250 feet.

The swing bridge across the canal above the lock has been provided with a new lower chord piece thirty-six feet in length, also a centre-piece of 14x16 inch timber, and four new end posts and two tamarac knees, also new floor stringers and planking for the entire length of the structure, and the bridge has been painted two coats of white paint.

The work attended to out of this appropriation consisted of the construction of a swing bridge to replace two fixed spans in the structure across the Madawaska river at the village of Combermere, in the county of Renfrew.

The new bridge is a good substantial structure, constructed on the "Howe Truss" principle, and is fifty-two feet in length and twelve feet in width between the chords. The superstructure is constructed with dressed material, and neatly painted, and rests upon a cribwork centre pier about fifteen feet square, with upper portion splayed to form cutwater; the ends of the bridge resting upon the old piers, which had to be extensively repaired owing to decayed timber.

The work was commenced in the early part of March and completed on the 26th of April.

The carrying out of this improvement enables the small steamer which has for some few years past been plying between Barry's Bay on the Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound Railway and this village—a distance of about twelve miles—to extend the trips to Palmer's Rapids—a distance of six miles, and from there to Havergal or "Conroy's Farm" on the York Branch, a further distance of about eight miles; also up the Mississippi branch of the Madawaska, to what is known as the "First Chute"—a distance of about eight miles. This will prove a great convenience to residents in the townships of Radcliffe, Raglan, Carlow and Mont-eagle, enabling as it does railway communication to be reached during the seasons of navigation without taking the long drives which formerly had to be done in order to get this accommodation; and it will also, in all likelihood, materially assist in the opening up and development of this section of country.

SQUAW RIVER—TOWNSHIP OF HARVEY.

The improvements and repairs which have been made to the works on this stream during the present year are as follows:

The structure known as the "Big Dam" has been provided with four new stop-logs eleven feet in length, and the stop-log platform, twenty-four feet in length and twelve feet in width, has been covered with two inch hemlock planking.

A new dam seventy-four feet in length, six feet in width and six feet in height has been constructed with round hemlock timber, about 300 feet southerly from the "Big Dam," the front being sheeted with two-inch hemlock planking, and gravelled the entire length, and the cribwork filled with stone.

The dam on Lot 31, in the XIth Concession, 160 feet in length, seven feet in height and seven feet in width, has been raised one foot and filled with stone; and the face of the structure sheeted with two thicknesses of one-inch hemlock lumber.

An earth embankment eighteen feet in width at the base and sloping up to the top of the dam has also been formed in front, which it is expected will do away with the necessity of rebuilding the cribbing when the present timber-work decays.

A new dam has been constructed on Lot 31 in the Xth Concession to replace one which was destroyed by fire. It is 110 feet in length, six feet in height and six feet in width, the cribwork being of round hemlock timber fastened together with 2½-inch oak trenails twenty-two inches in length. The face of the dam is sheeted with two thicknesses of inch lumber, and the structure is filled with stone and well gravelled to make it watertight.

The stop-log dam at the outlet of what is known as the "Big Marsh," 120 feet in length, has been sheeted for six feet in height with two-inch hemlock planking fastened with 6"x¾" spikes; and the dam has been supplied with four new stop-logs, and new two-inch hemlock flooring provided for the platform.

A wing dam, seventy feet in length, six feet in width and an average height of three feet has also been constructed with round hemlock timber at the westerly end of the main dam, to replace one which had been destroyed by fire, the face of the dam being sheeted with inch lumber, and well gravelled, and the cribwork filled with stone.

The structure known as the "Forks Dam," situated in the township of Galway, about three-quarters of a mile up stream from the dam at the outlet of the Big Marsh, has been provided with six new stop-logs and a new top course of timber for its entire length of 110 feet, and the sides of the slide opening have been rebuilt and some gravelling done. A number of boulders have also been blasted and removed from the channel further up stream, and a considerable amount of rock has been removed from the westerly side of the river near the outlet, where the passage of timber was frequently seriously interfered with. It is expected that the improvement will be sufficient to do away with this inconvenience in future.

UNION CREEK IMPROVEMENT.

The work attended to out of this appropriation during the present year consisted of the removal of boulders and the excavation of a channel through two rocky shoals on Lot 24, concession A, in the township of Galway, one cutting being twenty-five feet in length, fourteen feet in width and four feet in depth, and the other twenty-five feet in length, seven feet in width and eighteen inches in depth. The stream has also been improved by the removal of fallen timber, sunken logs, etc., which interfered with the flow of the water, the work of this description being commenced a short distance from the westerly boundary of Lot 4 in the XIIth Concession and continued to the XIVth Concession.

PORT ELGIN LANDING PIER.

An appropriation of $1,000 was granted last session to aid in improving the public landing pier at this village, and the works which have been attended to are as follows :

The dock accommodation has been extended by driving close piling along the shore for a distance of 205 feet, and filling in behind with clay, sand and gravel, and a considerable quantity of dredging has also been done outside the piling so as to provide the required depth of water.

The work has been carried out in a substantial manner, the piles being of cedar sawn ten inches in thickness, the face work being securely fastened with bolts and timbers to anchor piles driven about ten feet apart and about fourteen feet back from the front, and the outside piling is provided with 6x10 inch rock elm waling pieces securely bolted every five feet.

The improvement was carried out by the local authorities, and upon the department being notified of its completion, examination was made and as the work was found to be satisfactorily performed and properly attested vouchers of the expenditure furnished, the appropriation was paid.

COBB'S LAKE IMPROVEMENT.

The work attended to out of this appropriation consisted of the removal of sunken logs and other debris from the channel which forms the outlet of this lake into the Nation river; also the deepening of the bed and straightening of the stream in places to facilitate the escape of flood water during time of freshet.

In order to take advantage of the season of extreme low water, operations were not commenced until the 19th of August, the work being continued until the 17th of November, when it was completed.

EXTENSION OF RAILWAYS IN 1897.

The works of this description which have been attended to during the present year are, as far as could be ascertained, as follows :

MONTREAL AND OTTAWA RAILWAY.

The construction of this railway between Vaudreuil station on the C. P. R. and Ottawa was commenced in 1889, and the line completed to Rigaud, a distance of 16½ miles, in 1890 and in 1893 a branch seven miles in length was constructed from Rigaud to Point Fortune, which is situated on the Ottawa river at the boundary line between the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. In 1896 a further extension of twenty-nine miles was made, the line being completed and opened for traffic from Rigaud to Alfred, which is situated twenty-four and one-half miles westward from the Provincial boundary, and the work has continued to be vigorously prosecuted during the present year, the line being now open to Plantagenet and the grading and track-laying completed to within about a mile and a half of Ottawa, or for a distance of 64.80 miles from the easterly boundary of the Province, and it is expected the whole will be fully ballasted and opened for traffic during the coming summer.

The distance between Montreal and Ottawa by this line will, I understand, be 111½ miles.

The distance between Montreal and Ottawa by this line will, I understand, be 111½ miles.

OTTAWA AND NEW YORK RAILWAY.

This railway is being constructed between Cornwall and Ottawa, a distance of 56.4 miles. The work was commenced about the 15th of July last, and I understand the grading and tracklaying is about completed and the ballasting well advanced, and it is expected that trains will be running in the early part of the coming year. The line will cross the St. Lawrence river at Cornwall, on a high level bridge, with a swinging span over the Canadian Canal, which it is expected will be completed next summer, the estimated cost of the structure being about $500,000.

OTTAWA, ARNPRIOR AND PARRY SOUND RAILWAY.

As previously reported, this railway was completed from Ottawa to Rose Point Narrows, on the inner channel of the Georgian Bay, in the early part of December, 1896. Construction work has been continued during the present year and I am informed that the line is now fully completed across Parry island to the terminus at Depot bay, a further distance of 3.7 miles, and that about two miles of sidings have been laid at this point, and an elevator with a capacity of 100,000 bushels erected, and that 3,000 feet of dock, built in twenty-two feet of water, is also nearing completion.

IRONDALE, BANCROFT AND OTTAWA RAILWAY.

The construction of this line eastward from Baptiste lake, in the township of Herschell, has been proceeded with during the present year, and I understand the work is well advanced for a distance of five miles, or to a point on the Hastings road, near the village of Bancroft. It is expected this extension will be completed and opened for traffic in the early part of the coming year.

The following revised statement to the close of 1897 gives in detail the mileage of each railway in Ontario, distinguishing between those constructed prior to and since Confederation :—

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO, 1st November, 1897.

To the Honourable COLONEL GIBSON, Q.C., M.P.P., &c.,

Commissioner of Crown Lands,
Toronto.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the accompanying reports respecting the various organizations authorized to undertake contracts of insurance, indemnity or guarantee, in the Province of Ontario. Of these organizations the Act of 1897 (60 Vict., chap. 36), distinguishes three great Divisions:

A. Registered Dominion Licensees: being Insurance Corporations, Companies or Underwriters, operating under the Insurance Act of Canada and registered by the Province of Ontario, for the transaction of insurance in the Province.

B. Provincial Licensees: being Insurance Companies licensed, inspected and registered by the Province of Ontario, for the transaction of insurance therein.

C. Registered Friendly Societies: being Societies registered by the Province of Ontario, for the transaction of insurance therein.

Of these Divisions the Companies comprised in Division B (Provincial Licensees) are alone inspected by the Province, and are here reported on in the usual form and with the usual financial details pursuant to the provisions of the Ontario Insurance Act.

The report upon Division A (Dominion Licensees) made on the 26th January, 1893, described fully their mode and place of incorporation: their statutory powers, duties, rights and obligations; their internal organization; the relation of the members inter se; the liabilities of the members to the creditors of the Company; the kind or kinds of insurance for which the Company is registered in Ontario; and the extent to which assets of the Company have been deposited in various countries as special security for the policy holders of those several countries. In the present report, except in cases of new licenses, it has not been considered necessary to set out all of these details. Where any change has occurred in the Company's powers or status the nature and extent of such changes are indicated.

All of the Companies in Division A, except Ocean Marine Companies, make financial statements annually to the Dominion of Canada; and those statements as revised by the Dominion Superintendent, can be found in the Superintendent's Annual Report. The balance sheets therefore printed here, under Division A, are limited to those of Ocean Marine Companies.

The report upon Division C (Friendly Societies) made on the 26th of January, 1893, related to their mode and place of incorporation; the statutes and instruments under which the Societies were constituted, and those by which they are now governed; the kind of insurance or insurance benefits undertaken; that report also showed inter alia, whether or not the certificate holders generally are secured by a reserve fund; and, if a reserve fund is maintained, whether any of this reserve is held in Ontario, any, how much, how invested, and by whom held and controlled.

The present report on Division O consists of abstracts of the Annual Statement for the year ending 31st December, 1896, made by the Friendly Societies to the Insurance Department of Ontario, under section 96 of the Ontario Insurance Act, 1897.

In order to prevent unnecessary delay in publication, the three divisions have been placed simultaneously in the printer's hands—the pages of the several Divisions being distinguished by the Division letter prefixed. Division indexes have been inserted at the end of the volume. These indexes show the Companies and Societies standing registered at dates therein mentioned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. HOWARD HUNTER,

Inspector of Insurance and

Registrar of Friendly Societies.

GRAND TEMPLE OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS OF CANADA.

ANNUAL STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 1896.

Head Office, 51 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont.

Organized 21st November, 1854, and incorporated in Canada, 30th June, 1864.

On the 24th of February, 1897, the Registrar of Friendly Societies received official notice from the Directors of the Society that the Good Templar Benefit Association had ceased to transact business as a friendly society, and had discharged all liabilities in full. The letter and financial statement are as follows :

TORONTO, February 24th, 1897.

J. HOWARD HUNTER, Esq.,

Registrar of Friendly Societies,

Toronto, Ontario.

DEAR SIR.—The undersigned beg to inform you that the Good Templar Benefit Association of the Grand Temple of Canada has ceased to transact the business of a Friendly Society.

Early in the year 1896, the Directors, after carefully considering the condition and prospects of the Association, came to the conclusion that it could not, within a reasonable time, secure a sufficient membership to render possible the payment in full of insurance benefits as they matured. They, therefore, deemed it advisable in the interests of the membership that the affairs of the Association should be wound up. This decision was communicated to the members in good standing for approval, together with the choice of being reinsured in or transferred to some other benefit society, or of having returned to them the assessments they respectively had paid to the Association after deducting therefrom the amount of any benefit previously paid to them by the Association. The decision of the Directors was unanimously concurred in by the members and all those who signified their desire to be reinsured or transferred to another benefit society have since been so reinsured or transferred, while those who requested the return of the assessments paid by them to the Association have had the amount thereof paid to them respectively as agreed.

All liabilities of which the Association has knowledge have now been discharged in full, except a claim of the Secretary-Treasurer for cash advanced, which is now in process of adjustment and will be amicably settled, and there is now held in the treasury the sum of $210.30 to be applied toward the liquidation of that or any other claim that may arise.

Hereto attached we beg to hand you a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Association during the year 1896.

Yours respectfully,

W. F. BROCKENSHIRE,

President.

THOS. LAWLESS,

Secretary.

APPENDIX TO DIVISION C.

A. ACTUAL MORTALITY-COST OF LIFE INSURANCE IN CANADA.

B. EFFECT OF LAPSES IN FRATERNAL INSURANCE SOCIETIES.

A. NET ANNUAL PREMIUMS FOR AN ORDINARY ALL-LIFE INSURANCE OF $1,000: SHOWING THE ACTUAL MORTALITY-COST AS DERIVED FROM THE EXPERIENCE OF THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY, 1847-1893.

Department of Insurance, Toronto, 25th January, 1897.

Friendly Societies have of late been discussing the adoption of a uniform table of net annual premiums for an all-life insurance of $1,000,—the present rates being manifestly too low. By some opponents of this most necessary reform it has been alleged that the present low rates receive support from the experience of the Canada Life Assurance Company. For such representations there is absolutely no foundation whatever. In its recently published experience—which covers the period of forty-six years—the company has not included any table of net annual premiums, so that any alleged citation of such a table is purely fictitious. But the company has furnished to actuaries most valuable data whereby, among other results, can be calculated the net annual premiums which, with a sufficient provision for expenses of management, losses on investments, etc., must be taken by every company or society insuring lives in Canada if it would remain solvent.

In any company or society the effect of medical selection in reducing the death-rate among the recent entrants is apparent to every one. During the first year of assurance, the mortality among these new policyholders is always extremely low; and if the number of these new policyholders is large, relatively to the whole number of policyholders, the death-rate, if averaged over the whole number of policyholders, is entirely misleading as a basis for annual premiums. Even if all the new lives continued their policies, the effect of medical selection alone would, for a period of nearly five years, be to keep down their mortality to a rate far below normal, and therefore to mislead as to the all-life premiums necessary to carry the risks in future years. In practice, however, it is found that a considerable number of the most eligible lives discontinue their insurance, while the weakly or less vigorous continue; so that lapses, far from being generally beneficial to the company or society, operate to deteriorate the general quality of the persisting lives and to raise the subsequent death-rate. Hence, in the second quinquennium (or period of five years) of these new and persisting policyholders the annual death-rate among them is always found to be relatively very high; indeed, it is sometimes higher than the average death-rate in the general population of the same age. But during the third quinquennium the death-rate among these new policyholders, is relatively and sometimes absolutely lower than during the second; for by that time the disturbing effects of recent medical selection and of early lapses have both become spent. This was clearly shown many years ago by various English actuaries, and notably by Mr. T. B. Sprague, in 1863, in his analysis of the Hm. Mortality Table, which represents the experience of twenty British (ten English and ten Scotch) companies, and insurances of 160,426 healthy lives. These results have since been confirmed by investigations of other eminent actuaries, English and American, and find their latest confirmation in the published experience of the Canada Life Assurance Company. For example, taking the group of policy holders who entered that company at ages 23 to 27 (both inclusive), the Canada Life experience shows that the death-rate per thousand per annum among these policy holders during six successive periods, each of five years, was as follows: during 1st quinquennium, 4.50; 2nd, 6.39; 3rd, 6.37; 4th, 8.98; 5th, 13.45; 6th, 13.642.

It is, therefore, now becoming an increasing practice among insurers of lives to tabulate their experience by quinquennia; also to exclude the first quinquennium when either valuing policies or calculating a table of net annual premiums.

Thus there are obviously two distinct tables of net annual premiums derivable from the experience of any company or society :—(1) a table which includes the whole experience of the assured lives from the year of their entry to the year of their exit ; (2) a table which excludes from (1) the first five years of insurance i.e. the period of disturbing effects. The difference between the two rates, which ordinarily is not large, would be extremely material if the company or society included in its experience a quinquennium of intense activity during which it added to its policy holders an immense number of selected lives, especially where the usual proportion and kind of lapses followed. In such a case, the first table above mentioned would seriously fall below the premium rates actually necessary to carry the persisting policy holders.

In the following Table will be found in parallel columns (1) and (2) the net annual premiums deduced respectively (1) from the whole Canada Life Experience and (2) from that experience when the disturbing effects of the first quinquennium are eliminated. The premiums in column (1) were calculated from a commutation table prepared by Mr. A. K. Blackadar, F.I.A. and read before the Actuarial Society of America. I calculated the premiums in column (2), ages 25 to 55, from the functions appearing in the published experience of the Canada Life ; and, as that experience does not show the mortality for ages below 25, I deduced the premiums for ages 18 to 24 by a process familiar to actuaries. In this Table, Friendly Societies have now the authentic results of nearly a half-century of Canadian experience, which will be found the most reliable guide in revising their premium rates.

J. HOWARD HUNTER,

Inspector of Insurance.

B. EFFECT OF LAPSES IN FRATERNAL INSURANCE SOCIETIES.

Extract from the report of the Committee on Statistics and Good of the Order made to the National Fraternal Congress at its 11th Annual Session at Port Huron, Mich., 5th Oct., 1897.

“ LAPSES.

“ During the year 1896 there were 175,543 certificates lapsed representing protection [insurance] to the amount of $321,608,150. This was a loss of 108 per 1,000 members on the average membership for the year, as compared with 97 per 1,000 in 1895, 95 per 1,000 in 1894, 96 per 1,000 in 1893, and 68 per 1,000 in 1892.

“ All experience shows that lapses occur more frequently in the first three years of membership than later, and also that in most instances the members who allow their certificates to lapse are not those whose ‘risk’ has become impaired. In other words, they are either recently from the Medical Examiner or they are still in good health and within the age limit now prescribed by the various Orders. There are some exceptions to this rule. In cases where the rate of mortality has gone very high and where radical changes in the laws of some of the Orders have been made, a large number of lapses have resulted and even in these cases it will be found true that the poorer risks have remained.

“ We may very properly ask, what is the effect of lapses upon the business of the Orders? Does it affect them favorably or unfavorably? And in our endeavor to answer these questions we are not favored with anything in the way of reports from the Orders to the Congress that throw much light upon the subject. We all know as a general proposition it is the ‘good risk’ that lapses, and the poorer one that remains. We know that the tendency to lapse is greater among the young men than among the older ones. We know that in such cases unless the Order can replace the lapsed member with one equally as good physically, there is a loss in vitality, and we know also that it is expensive to recruit our membership.

“ In every case, when a certificate lapses, there may not only be a loss to the benefit fund but there is a loss to the expense fund of both the grand or supreme body and to the subordinate body. A loss here will or may have its bearing upon the benefit fund, since it may impair the power of the body to carry on its work as effectually as it otherwise would do, resulting in fewer new members secured during a given period of time. Whatever expense is incurred in securing the new member in such cases is a loss which would have been saved but for the lapse of that certificate. It would be difficult to determine the expense to the Orders made necessary on account of lapses, as the expense varies with the different Orders. There are a few Orders represented in the Congress where there may be some gain in the case of lapses—those in which the amount paid by each member to the benefit fund in the early years of his membership is greater than the current cost of mortality—even then there can be no gain except in so far as any surplus contributed by the member exceeds the cost of replacing his membership by an equally good risk.

“ The Orders represented here should make reports to the Congress that would give us data from which we could definitely ascertain the effect of lapses on the benefit fund and the mortality. We all experience the greatest loss by lapses during the first three years of membership. The average duration of membership of deceased members is greater than that of lapsed members, and the average amount of certificates terminated by death is greater than in the case of those terminated by lapse. We also learn from our reports that the average certificate allowed to lapse is less than the average in force, all of which shows that lapses are against the best interest of the Orders. Some strange conditions are observed in this matter of lapses.

“ The Order showing, for 1896, the highest number of lapses—460 per 1,000—had a death rate of only 3.69 per 1,000, which was lower than any other Order, save one, while the Order showing the smallest number of lapses—17 per 1,000—had a death rate of 6.08 per 1,000. The Order showing the next highest percentage of lapses—458 per 1,000—had a mortality of 19.01 per 1,000 (the highest mortality reported to the Congress) and the Order showing next to the lowest per centage—24 to the 1,000—had a mortality of 9.45 per 1,000, slightly below the average mortality reported by the Orders.

Fifteen of the Orders in which the rate of mortality was above 10 to the thousand, and where the average was 13.78, show an average loss by lapses of 147 per 1,000, while the 25 Orders in which the mortality was less than 10 to the thousand and where the average was only 6.38, show the same average loss from lapses as the former group.

" This condition does not result from lack of faith in fraternal beneficiary orders, but as your committee believes from other causes. It is noticeable that Orders operating largely or exclusively in the Eastern and New England States show a smaller ratio of lapses than those which operate largely in the west. The eastern people are more conservative, they are more acquainted with the value of such protection and they have fewer of the new Orders operating there than there are in the west. The Orders which are the strongest numerically in the east and which secure the greatest number of new members, are all substantially on a par as to cost of protection. Few of the new ones have their headquarters in that section of the country. There is not as much nor the same kind of competition in that section, and there is no doubt but that competition is one of the chief causes of lapses.

" Your committee being fully satisfied that so great a number of lapses is not beneficial, and that the Orders which show the smallest ratio of lapses, other conditions being equal, are in the best condition, desire to submit for your consideration some of the causes that seem to have contributed to this situation. The fact that 175,543 certificates lapsed last year does not mean that that number of persons dropped their membership in fraternal beneficiary orders, or that these persons have lost confidence in the system which furnishes protection at a smaller expense than any other in existence. It will be observed that this great increase in lapses occurred during the years when the business and industrial interests of our country were most seriously embarrassed and depressed, when employment was less certain for all those from whom the ranks of the fraternal beneficiary orders are principally recruited, and it is probable that thousands of certificates were allowed to lapse in 1896 from lack of means to keep them in force, the hard times being assigned as the cause. Another prolific cause is found in the ease with which persons may now become members of a fraternal beneficiary order. Scores of new ones have sprung into existence during the past three or four years of which this Congress has no official notice. They are all anxious to secure business, are usually on the mortuary assessment plan under which the expense of membership during the first five years is apt to be only nominal, and by doing away with or reducing to a small amount the cost of admission have prevailed upon thousands of certificate holders in the Orders here represented to unite with them and thus allow their former certificates to lapse. Another cause will be found in the fact that thousands who held membership in two or more Orders have been obliged to reduce the amount of their protection. This is evidenced by the fact that many have availed themselves of the privilege in some of the Orders of reducing the benefits carried where it could be done. In such cases one or more certificates must be numbered among the lapsed.

" Lapses of this nature do not argue against the system, but rather call our attention to the fact that so long as the Orders are managed on their present basis, and so long as new Orders are organized on similar plans, thus offering to the public present protection at prices so varied, we may expect the ratio of lapses to membership to increase, with an increasing mortality in the older Orders, until it reaches that point where reorganization or death is the only alternative. The conditions and causes above mentioned, under the present system, cannot be done away with, and the only result of such competition must be the 'survival of the fittest,' or in other words, the Orders will rise, serve their purpose for a time and then be succeeded by another class, which in due time will follow them. This course will not serve the purpose for which the fraternal beneficiary orders came into existence and does not reflect credit upon those who make up their membership or manage their affairs. Such unequal and unwise competition among these Orders will be as fatal to similar competition among merchants. If one merchant was selling cotton cloth for three cents a yard, while another was selling the same article for five cents a yard, we would hardly expect the latter to sell much of that cloth, even though he were only charging the fair value of the article. The competition would be unfair to the latter and eventually disastrous to the former, because the more cloth he sold the greater would be his loss. This is practically the situation to-day among the Orders here represented as well as among those not represented. The amount collected for protection in one Order being less than \$3.50, and in others from \$10 upward as high as \$19. The real cost of protection is as well known as that of cotton cloth. The experience of the Orders represented here has demonstrated what it is to-day among a membership of nearly 2,000,000, embracing every section of our country and every class of our people, not for a single year, but for a series of years. This experience is corroborated by that of all Insurance Companies as well as by the mortality tables. And yet it was possible in 1896 for one Order here represented to provide protection for \$3.45 per \$1,000, while the average cost to all the Orders was \$9.79 per \$1,000. We all know that every Order that is to-day providing protection for an average price of less than \$10 per \$1,000 where its average age is even under forty years, is doing so at the expense of future membership. That in so doing it is assuming obligations that can only be redeemed by an increase in the annual cost of protection which will be practically a prohibition to new members and result in the suspension of all those who are able to get protection elsewhere. That such a system takes no account of the ever increasing burden resulting from the increasing age of members, nor of the fact that as the average age increases under such a system, resulting in an increased mortality and correspondingly increased cost per year for protection, that growth will cease and decay must result. It may not be news to many of us, but it is no less true, that every Order represented in this Congress that shows a death rate for 1896 of eleven and upwards to each 1,000 lives exposed shows also a net loss in membership. There are eleven Orders of this class. They have been doing business an average of seventeen years. The percentage of new members admitted last year was $7\frac{3}{4}$. The number of lapses 175 per 1,000, and the total net loss in membership was 32,679, on an average membership of 285,093.

"The average length of time all the Orders in the Congress have been doing business is thirteen years. The average mortality of the eleven Orders above referred to when they had been doing business an average of thirteen years was 11.74, while for 1896, or when they had been doing business an average of seventeen years, it had risen to 16.4. It will be observed that the Congress as a whole shows a better condition than the eleven Orders referred to did at the same average age, in matter of mortality—9.79 as compared with 11.74, yet it is true of every Order that when the death rate has reached a point above the average now, and for several years prevailing in the Congress, growth stops, new members cannot easily be secured and old ones lapse. What the remedy for these conditions is, your Committee does not suggest, but either through this Congress or the individual Orders the necessary remedy must be applied. The trust committed to their care is too great and sacred to be hazarded by such conditions when it is possible to better them. The competition of the past five years is insignificant in comparison with what may reasonably be expected in the next five years. The life insurance companies, both old line and mutuals, in their respective classes, charge substantially the same price for protection, and the fact that they charge too much, and in the case of the former about twice its value and its actual cost, does not alter the other fact that each system could furnish protection at about what it costs on an average among the Orders here represented. They could; but they do not, and it is this fact, to-day so generally known, that not only gave rise to our system, but has recommended it during all the years since 1867 down to the present, and that will ever be one of its chief recommendations. Some years ago these companies were generally indulged in a practice which was known as 'rebating' until it became necessary for the legislatures to interfere and impose heavy penalties therefor. If there was reason for such interference to protect the interests of policy-holders in these companies, and prevent scandal and loss, is there not much more reason why the interests of our members should be protected against a system that holds out inducements to those who are young in years and blessed with good health to remain in the Orders only so long as protection can be afforded them at less than its average cost?"
